

- Tolson _____
- DeLoach _____
- Mohr _____
- Bishop _____
- Casper _____
- Callahan _____
- Conrad _____
- Felt _____
- Gale _____
- Rosen _____
- Sullivan _____
- Tavel _____
- Trotter _____
- Tele. Room _____
- Holmes _____
- Gandy _____

S. Haggerty
Lentz
P. to B. J.
Ran...

CLAYTON FRITCHEY

Garrison Is Conducting a 'Trial by Publicity'

Having spent an entire year trying his Kennedy assassination conspiracy case on all the television and radio networks, as well as in all the newspapers, magazines, and other media, New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison this week was finally supposed to try it in court, of all places.

But once more there is a last-minute postponement. The prosecutor week by week thickens the plot so bewilderingly that the defense is never quite up with him. This time the defense lawyers are asking for a change of venue on the grounds that Garrison has created an "atmosphere of prejudice and passion."

Theoretically, the defendant is a prominent New Orleans businessman, Clay Shaw, but in the incredible year since his indictment, he has been reduced almost to an "extra" in the fantastic plot that Garrison has unfolded in the headlines month after month.

Sam Shepherd, the Cleveland doctor who was convicted of murdering his wife, ultimately won his freedom when the Supreme Court ruled that he had been jeopardized by pre-trial publicity. But the Shepherd publicity was a mere ripple compared to the tidal wave generated by Garrison.

Some weeks ago, after Garrison called a press conference to reveal his latest version of the assassination plot, he denied that he was violating the order of District Judge Edward Haggerty against talking publicly about the case. Anyhow, he added, "Judge Haggerty does not run the District Attorney's office."

The melodramatic charges of Garrison, and other pro-conspiracy promoters, have poisoned the public mind against the Warren Report to such an extent that the Harris Poll now finds that two-thirds of the American people are convinced that President Kennedy was the victim of a "conspiracy," and conspiracy to kill Kennedy is just what Shaw is accused of.

Judge Haggerty has not seen fit to cite Garrison for contempt or otherwise restrain him, but Sir Arthur Goodhart, the distinguished American-born law professor, has said:

"There has been a lot of talk about trial by newspapers, but that isn't true in this case. They must publish what the district attorney says. This is an example of trial by the district attorney, which is the most unfortunate feature of our American criminal law system." He called Garrison "publicity drunk" and said he had discredited the United States abroad.

It is true that as the trial date neared, Garrison has tried to focus public attention on others, and the indications are that he now intends to make the highest officials of the federal government the real defendants. If he fails to make a successful case against Shaw, he has prepared the way for putting the blame on the "Feds" for allegedly suppressing evidence of the great conspiracy.

The chief defendant would then be President Johnson. "Who appointed Ramsey Clark (the Attorney General) who has done his best to torpedo the investigation of the case?" Ask Harrison. "Who controls the CIA? Who controls the FBI? Who controls the Archives where this evidence is locked up. This is really the property of the people of this country. Who has the arrogance and the brass to prevent the people from seeing that evidence? Who indeed? The one man who has profited most from the assassination — your friendly President, Lyndon Johnson!"

- The Washington Post _____
- Times Herald _____
- The Washington Daily News _____
- The Evening Star (Washington) A-13
- The Sunday Star (Washington) _____
- Daily News (New York) _____
- Sunday News (New York) _____
- New York Post _____
- The New York Times _____
- The Sun (Baltimore) _____
- The Worker _____
- The New Leader _____
- The Wall Street Journal _____
- The National Observer _____
- People's World _____

NOT RECORDED
 199 FEB 16 1968

Date 2/12/68

62-109060

F54
 51 FEB 16 1968

Fall
5706

Garrison told Ramparts magazine that he was not accusing Johnson of complicity in the crime, but he said the burden had shifted to the Government to prove that it was not an accessory before or after the act. "I assume the President of the United States is not involved," he said, "but wouldn't it be nice to know it."

After this kind of talk, it was no great surprise to learn that an Army medical board reported as follows on Garrison in 1851: "This patient has a severe and disabling psychoneurosis of long duration. It has interfered with his social and professional adjustment to a marked degree. He is considered totally disabled from the standpoint of military duty."

- Tolson
- DeLoach
- Mohr
- Bishop
- Casper
- Callahan
- Conrad
- Felt
- Gale
- Rosen
- Sullivan
- Tavel
- Trotter
- Tele. Room
- Holmes
- Gandy

CLAYTON FRITCHEY A13

Garrison Is Conducting a 'Trial by Publicity'

Having spent an entire year trying his Kennedy assassination conspiracy case on all the television and radio networks, as well as in all the newspapers, magazines, and other media, New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison this week was finally supposed to try it in court, of all places.

But once more there is a last-minute postponement. The prosecutor week by week thickens the plot so bewilderingly that the defense is never quite up with him. This time the defense lawyers are asking for a change of venue on the grounds that Garrison has created an "atmosphere of prejudice and passion."

Theoretically, the defendant is a prominent New Orleans businessman, Clay Shaw, but in the incredible year since his indictment, he has been reduced almost to an "extra" in the fantastic plot that Garrison has unfolded in the headlines month after month.

Sam Shepherd, the Cleveland doctor who was convicted of murdering his wife, ultimately won his freedom when the Supreme Court ruled that he had been jeopardized by pre-trial publicity. But the Shepherd publicity was a mere ripple compared to the tidal wave generated by Garrison.

Some weeks ago, after Garrison called a press conference to reveal his latest version of the assassination plot, he denied that he was violating the order of District Judge Edward Haggerty against talking publicly about the case. Anyhow, he added, "Judge Haggerty does not run the District Attorney's office."

The melodramatic charges of GARRISON, and other pro-conspiracy pomoters, have poisoned the public mind against the Warren Report to such an extent that the Harris Poll now finds that two-thirds of the American people are convinced that President Kennedy was the victim of a "conspiracy," and conspiracy to kill Kennedy is just what Shaw is accused of.

Judge Haggerty has not seen fit to cite Garrison for contempt or otherwise restrain him, but Sir Arthur Goodhart, the distinguished, American-born law professor, has said:

"There has been a lot of talk about trial by newspapers, but that isn't true in this case. They must publish what the district attorney says. This is an example of trial by the district attorney, which is the most unfortunate feature of our American criminal law system." He called Garrison "publicity drunk" and said he had discredited the United States abroad.

It is true that as the trial date neared, Garrison has tried to focus public attention on others, and the indications are that he now intends to make the highest officials of the federal government the real defendants. If he fails to make a successful case against Shaw, he has prepared the way for putting the blame on the "Feds" for allegedly suppressing evidence of the great conspiracy.

The chief defendant would then be President Johnson. "Who appointed Ramsey Clark (the Attorney General) who has done his best to torpedo the investigation of the case?" Ask Garrison, "Who controls the CIA? Who controls the FBI? Who controls the Archives where this evidence is locked up? This is really... the property of the people of this country. Who has the arrogance and the brass to prevent the people from seeing that evidence? Who indeed? The one man who has profited most from the assassination - your friendly President, Lyndon Johnson!"

Garrison told Ramparts magazine that he was not accusing Johnson of complicity in the crime, but he said the burden had shifted to the Government to prove that it was not an accessory before or after the act. "I assume the President of the United States is not involved," he said, "but wouldn't it be nice to know it."

After this kind of talk, it was no great surprise to learn that an Army medical board reported as follows on Garrison in 1951: "This patient has a severe and disabling psychoneurosis of long duration. It has interfered with his social and professional adjustment to a marked degree. He is considered totally disabled from the standpoint of military duty."

Popple
Wahl

- The Washington Post _____
- Times Herald _____
- The Washington Daily News _____
- The Evening Star (Washington) A-13
- The Sunday Star (Washington) _____
- Daily News (New York) _____
- Sunday News (New York) _____
- New York Post _____
- The New York Times _____
- The Sun (Baltimore) _____
- The Worker _____
- The New Leader _____
- The Wall Street Journal _____
- The National Observer _____
- People's World _____
- Date FEB 16 1968

51 FEB 16 1968
F54

62-109060-17
1968 FEB 16 1968
File
5762
PC