More on That Party

Jim Garrison Calls 'Plot' Witness

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 10 (UPI) — The state called Perry Raymond Russo today to tell his story of listening while Clay L. Shaw, Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie plotted in detail the

Mr. Russo testified at a hearing nearly two years ago that in September, 1963, he had attended a party in Mr. Ferrie's apartment here in which the three — in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's opening statement words — "discussed and re-fined" the plot.

Mr. Russo gave his original testimony on March 14, 1967. The next day he said he had been placed under hypnosis by Mr. Garrison's investigators three times before the hearing.

HYPNOTIZED

His testimony in Mr. Shaw's trial in criminal district court here will follow that of a state witness who said he had been hypnotized against his will "possibly 50 or 60 times" over a 15-year period.

That witness, Charles I. Spiesel, a New York accountant and tax consultant, took the jury to the French Quarter Saturday in search of the apartment he testified he visited in June, 1963.

There, he testified, he heard about 10 men, including Mr. Shaw and Mr. Ferrie, discussing ways to kill the President.

$16 MILLION SUIT

On cross examination, Defense Attorney F. Irvin Dymond drew from Mr. Spiesel details of a Federal court suit he had filed in New York seeking $16 million damages from the Pinkerton Detective Agency and a number of individuals, for torturing him mentally, hypnotizing him to get confidential information, turning his lights off from time to time and obtaining entrance to his apartment by posing as relatives.

As a result, the suit alleged, he was prevented from having normal sex relations and forced to turn over his business to competitors.
