Suit for $5 Million Filed by Clay Shaw

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Clay Shaw has filed a $5 million damage suit against Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison and others for accusing him of a conspiracy to kill President John F. Kennedy.

A Criminal District Court jury acquitted Shaw of the charges last March 1. His suit, filed in U.S. District Court yesterday, contended that his constitutional rights were violated by the defendants and that Garrison "misused and abused the prosecution powers of his office."

Garrison could not be reached for comment about the suit.

The suit contended the charges against Shaw were part of a scheme by Garrison and the other defendants "to conduct an illegal, useless and fraudulent investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy" and "to obtain a judicial forum for his (Garrison's) attacks upon the Warren Commission and other government officials."

Shaw, 56, was a retired New Orleans businessman and former managing director of the International Trade Mart in New Orleans when he was charged by Garrison.

Also named defendants in Shaw's suit were Perry Raymond Russo, Dr. Esmond A. Fatter, Joseph M. Rault Jr., Willard Robertson and Cecil M. Shilstone. The suit also named as defendants certain persons identified by fictitious names.

Carollo, Deported Twice, Indicted

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—ylvester (Silver Dollar Sam) Carollo, who has twice been deported for a series of crimes, was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on charges of re-entering the United States illegally.

Carollo, 74, a citizen of Italy, was deported from the United States in 1947 and again in 1951. He is now being treated at Touro Infirmary for heart trouble.

The former Louisiana rackets figure, previously convicted on narcotics, bootlegging and attempted murder charges, reportedly re-entered the United States two months ago at Detroit. Immigration officials said no action will be taken against Carollo until his health improves.

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—irhan B. Sirhan, convicted and sentenced to death for the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in 1968, is getting a little more freedom on Death Row.

Yesterday's announcement by Associate Warden James Park was the first word of eased security restrictions for Sirhan since his arrival at San Quentin rPison nine months ago.

Park said Sirhan will be allowed 15 feet more as an exercise area, permitting him to approach a steel-reinforced wire mesh fence to converse with fellow prisoners.

The 25-year-old Jordanian Arab staged a hunger strike last December, complaining his confinement was too restrictive.

He ended his fast after 13 days after a tearful visit from hims other, Mary Sirhan of Pasadena, who pleaded with him to resume eating or she would begin a fast of her own.
