Suit Charges U.S. Knows of Chicago Plot to Kill JFK

CHICAGO (UPI) — Sherman Skolnick, a court critic and legal researcher, filed suit in U.S. District Court yesterday asking that information be released from the National Archives about an alleged plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy.

Skolnick said in the suit the plotting occurred in Chicago on Nov. 2, 1963, three weeks before Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Tex.

The suit said the plotters planned to assassinate Kennedy when he visited Chicago to attend an Army-Air Force football game.

The suit charged that "documents, papers and exhibits" describing the plot to kill Kennedy in Chicago have been suppressed in the archives.
