New JFK Slaying Probe Wins Backing

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Three Virginia congressmen said yesterday they will support a new congressional investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The Cavalier Daily, The University of Virginia student newspaper, said in a copyrighted story.

The three congressmen agreed to support a move to reopen the case following a presentation in Washington by photography expert Robert Groden and second-year university law student Andy Purdy before five Virginia congressmen, the newspaper said.

Groden and Purdy, using the Zapruder film of the assassination, questioned the accuracy of the Warren Commission report.
