ReBairtel to Dallas, 9/8/64.

On 9/11/64, MARINA OSWALD was again interviewed with respect to any property presently in her possession which might be of possible pertinence to this investigation.

As reflected in a letterhead memorandum being forwarded to the Bureau, MARINA OSWALD made available for examination various documents, books and other articles which she had stored in closets and other places in her home. All articles in these places were examined in the presence of MARINA OSWALD and her adviser, DECLAN FORD.

The following articles which might be of possible pertinence in this investigation were taken and are forwarded under separate cover to the FBI Laboratory for appropriate examination. It will be noted that MARINA OSWALD said the other copies of photographs being forwarded were previously available to the FBI and the President's Commission. These photographs were taken and are being forwarded to assure that they have been examined in connection with this investigation.

MARINA has requested all of this material be returned to her when it has served its purpose.

The following items are being forwarded under separate cover:

D 254 (1) Book written in Russian for study of English with note on flyleaf written to MARINA OSWALD by Mrs. EUTH PAINE. Book has blue cover with red lettering.

D 273 (2) Book entitled "English" for study by Russian-speaking persons. Book cover has picture of English alphabet.
