Father ROYSTER said when he first found this folder he thought someone was playing a joke but on the insistence of one of the church members decided he should furnish this information to the FBI. He advised he knows of no reason why anyone would have done this especially as no one other than himself is allowed to touch anything on the altar.

Father ROYSTER stated that other than himself WALTER R. HEWELL, the church treasurer, and GEORGE W. ALLMAN, the church handy man, are the only people who have keys to the church.

Father ROYSTER stated on comparing the handwriting appearing on this manila folder that it appears quite similar to that of WALTER HEWELL and further it appears that HEWELL had attempted to disguise his handwriting. He stated he does not know why HEWELL, if in fact he did do the writing on the folder, or anyone else would have done such a thing.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to compare the known handwriting of WALTER R. HEWELL and GEORGE W. ALLMAN with that appearing on the above-described manila folder. Results of this examination should be furnished the Dallas Office. Further, the Laboratory is requested to return the manila folder to the Dallas Office as Father ROYSTER has requested that it be returned to him.
