Attached are two reels of tape of an interview of Mark Lane by Marvin Scott of Mutual Broadcasting System, Inc. The program was aired over radio Station WHN, New York City, on 5-29-68. The tapes were furnished by Al LaVie, Jr., Assistant Bureau Chief of the Mutual office in Washington. He advised that the interview concerns Lane's new book, "A Citizen's Dissent," and the assassination of President Kennedy. LaVie stated that the tapes did not have to be returned.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached tapes be referred to the Domestic Intelligence Division and the General Investigative Division for review and any appropriate action.
