ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63

PATRICK G. CONNOR, 222 Melrose, Corpus Christi, Texas, advised that he came to San Antonio on or about November 3, 1963, to seek employment. He said he is presently residing with his brother, MICHAEL R. CONNOR at 108 Circle Drive, San Antonio, Texas.

CONNOR said he was at a bar across the street from the Greyhound Bus Station around noon on November 21, 1963. He said he became engaged in conversation with two unknown men and the conversation covered many things, but to a great degree they discussed politics, especially President KENNEDY, his policies and trip to Texas. In the conversation one of the unknown individuals asked, in effect, "What would it be worth to kill KENNEDY." The other unknown individual replied "CASTRO would be interested." One of the men then mentioned it would be easy with a high-powered rifle.

CONNOR stated that one of the men told him he owns two bars on Bryan Street, Dallas, Texas, and gave him his card which gave name and location of the two bars. CONNOR said he has searched every place he knows trying to locate the card but thinks he may have thrown it away or lost it. He said he recalls the card had two cocktail glasses pictured on it in a staggered position. He also seemed to recall the glasses were pictured with a little red fluid in them. CONNOR described the man who said he owned the bar as a white, male, age 36, 5'10", 160-165 pounds, black hair sprinkled with gray, combed straight back with no part. He was wearing corduroy coat (color unknown) and white shirt with open collar.

CONNOR described the other man as a white, male, age 30, 6', 135 pounds, thin build, blond hair, wearing a long sleeve light tan shirt and no coat.

CONNOR stated that he could not recall which man made which statement, as he thought very little about it at the time. He considered it "bar talk." He said other times in the past when discussing politics he had heard people state that someone should kill KENNEDY but this was the first time it was ever put on a monetary basis. CONNOR said he and both of the men had been drinking moderately.

CONNOR further advised that the man who stated he owned the bar in Dallas asked a bar maid named JO ANN to call the San Antonio Airport and determine when a plane would leave for Dallas. After the bar maid completed the call, the unknown individual asked for change and made a call to Dallas, supposedly to his wife.

CONNOR stated he has seen photographs of JACK RUBY and neither of these men are identical to him.

CONNOR said after call was made no additional conversation was held regarding KENNEDY's visit to Texas.

JO ANN MORGAN, bar tender, Stardust Lounge, 509 North St. Marys, San Antonio, Texas, advised that she recalls a man known to her as PAT CONNOR being in the lounge and in conversation with two other men about a week ago but did not hear any details of the conversation. She did recall hearing the names "KENNEDY, KHRUSCHEV and CASTRO" but did not know how they were being used in the conversation. Miss MORGAN said she often makes calls for customers and many of them are to the airport. She could not recall specifically making a call for either of the two men with PAT CONNOR.
