ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, NOVEMBER 22, 1963

At 9:12 PM, November 24, 1963, Mr. LOUIS BENAVIDES, Special Agent in Charge, United States Secret Service, San Antonio, Texas, advised that he had received the following information from his headquarters in Washington, D.C.

On November 23, 1963, a man identifying himself as SIDNEY GLOVER, called the FBI in Washington, D. C., and talked to a Mr. GREEN. GLOVER stated that when all world leaders convene on November 25, 1963, in Washington, D. C., the same thing would take place that took place in Dallas, Texas. GLOVER was calling from a pay station in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Mr. BENAVIDES stated that he had checked with the Office of Naval Intelligence and the Corpus Christi, Texas, Police Department, and further found that GLOVER had been employed at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station, but was not now so employed. This employment was several months ago and GLOVER was now in San Antonio.

Mr. BENAVIDES said that he also determined from his headquarters in Washington, D. C. that shortly after GLOVER'S call a man stating he was FELIX COX telephoned the Pentagon, Washington, D. C., on November 23, 1963, and said he was a Staff Sergeant in the Marines. He furnished the same or similar data as had GLOVER. He also was calling from a pay station in Corpus Christi, Texas, and said that he had insufficient money to talk longer.
