

GLENCAIRN
Bryn Athyn, Pennsylvania

November 27, 1963

The enclosed Memorial Address for President Kennedy was delivered in Bryn Athyn Cathedral on Monday, November 25, 1963.

The service was deeply felt by those privileged to attend. We wish to share with you its message.

Sincerely your friends;

Raymond & Mildred Pittman

Dear Mr. Hoover:
*Raymond & I - and hundreds more in our country - have thought with gratitude and confidence of your operation to maintaining order and law in the United States, the more need for which has been so terribly tragically brought home to us these past few days.
May the Lord grant you strength*
