Six live .38 shells were found by Sergeant Jerry Hill, Dallas Police Department, at the time of his arrest, and these were in his .33 caliber weapon. Of these latter six shells, four of them were turned over to the Dallas FBI Office and two were turned over to the Secret Service.

Four empty hulls were found. Two of them were found by an unidentified witness at the scene of the shooting of Officer Tippit at 400 East 10th Street and given to Officer J. M. Poe. He has no recollection of who gave them to him. One hull was found by Barbara Jeanette Davis, 400 East 10th Street, and she gave it to Captain George Douhty, Dallas Police Department.
