ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 22, 1963
Dallas, Texas

At approximately 6:30 P.M., November 23, 1963, three boys and one girl entered the store of Mr. CECIL BALES, Kyle, Texas, and asked if they could watch Mr. BALES' television as they had been hunting near New Braunfels, Texas, and had just heard about the assassination. As they were watching television, the girl asked if the person who had done the shooting had been caught and Mr. BALES said that the police were holding a person from Fort Worth who was supposed to be a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Organization. The girl then remarked that this sounded like a person she knew by the name of OSWALD. Then Mr. BALES told her that was the name of the person who was being held and the girl remarked that she did not think OSWALD had the guts to do a thing like this. Another boy then mentioned that he has seen OSWALD in Fort Worth passing out literature for the Fair Play for Cuba Organization. Another boy said he was the grandson of former Vice President JOHN NANCE GARNER. All four said they were presently students at the University of Texas.
