Miss Mrs. Lee

Continuing my efforts on behalf of the F.P.C. in New Orleans I find that I have incurred the displeasure of the custom office there. I was attempted by three of them in the name of the enclosed summons instructing I was fined in dollars and the three custom were not paid because of "lack of evidence" as the judge said.

I am very glad of our stirring things up and shall continue to do so. The incident was given considerable coverage in the present local radio broadcast.

As you it will all be to the good of the "Miss Mary Lee" committee.
