Handwritten notes and signatures in the right margin.

The UPI on 12/12/63 quoted Frank M. Begley, Coordinator of Security for the United Nations in New York, as saying that the FBI has been asked to show pictures of President Kennedy's assassination and the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald to the security force of the United Nations.

The New York Office has advised that no such request has been received from Begley. Begley has not contacted the Bureau in this regard. The New York Office has been instructed to immediately advise the Bureau in the event such a request is received.
