Dear Allan:

Your letter of January 8th has been received, and I want to thank you for writing to me.

In response to your inquiry, I would like to point out that, at present, there is no Federal law concerning the assassination of a President. Consequently, this crime would come within the jurisdiction of the state in which the act was committed, and the accused party would be tried in the courts of that state.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
