~~SECRET~~

*Assassination of President John F
Kennedy*

Reference Miami letter to Bureau 3/14/64.

By cover memorandum dated April 15, 1964, the [redacted] CIA furnished the following information, supplementing that which had previously been received from CIA, [redacted] captioned matter. (S)

SUBJECT: Attribution of President Kennedy's Assassination to an Alleged Chicco/Gastro Flot X

REF: Memorandum this office, dated 7 December 1963, same Subject X

"1. The following additional information on the above subject dated 18 December 1963 was received 6 January 1964 from the same Western diplomat who provided the information contained in reference. (S) X (U)

"2. 'It seems that they are very worried about what may have happened to a Mexican called 'CAMACHO.' He is small, fat, with lots of black hair. Under a respectable business cover he appears to be the real head of an 'action-reason' (action net) covering all of Texas and even, perhaps, part of Mexico. (S) X (U)

"I have been unable to find out his real name, but he is supposed to be supplied with funds and requirements by RAMON CORTES and FERNANDEZ FEITO. CAMACHO also seems to be a close friend of two Mexican Millionaires names PASQUEL or PASCUAL, who are involved in Mexican and/or Texas petroleum and who do not know the secret real activities of the former. ~~(S)~~ (U)

Miami indices are negative on VIRGILIO COMAGRO PANIAGUA. ✕

With respect to RAUL PASCUAL, Miami indices reflect the information set forth [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It would appear that the RAUL PASCUAL listed in Miami indices would not be identical with a Mexican millionaire of that name since PASCUAL in Miami indices lived in Brooklyn, New York as of 1961. ✕

Miami indices did not reflect that RAUL PASCUAL departed from New York City for Vera Cruz in Mexico [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

(S-1)(S)

The foregoing is furnished in connection with the investigation of subject and is not being included in the case file pertaining to the investigation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD: IS - R - CIA, [REDACTED] although the title given the memorandum by CIA is "Attribution of President KENNEDY's Assassination to an Alleged Cuban/Castro Plot." ✕ (u)

~~SECRET~~

The investigation of subject has been conducted independently of the OSWALD investigation because there appeared to be no substantiation of the allegation that could not best be resolved by investigation of subject himself. ✕

The Miami Office will continue to furnish information received from CIA in this matter.
