Re: WILLIAM I. TURNER

Re WFO letter to Director, 12/10/63.

Relet makes reference to a Bureau telephone call, 12/7/63, advising that WILLIAM I. TURNER, Warsaw, N. C., had written a letter to the "ATLANTA Constitution," which reportedly states, "The President got what he deserved; Justice WARREN and the Attorney General are next." The telephone call advised appropriate offices that Secret Service had been notified and requested that the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., be notified by WFO.

A review of data to be included in a report in captioned matter fails to indicate that any action was taken to resolve the allegation by TURNER.

Based on investigation being conducted in captioned matter, it would appear that this allegation should be resolved
