REQUEST FOR LETTER FROM FBI CONCERNING FINGER-PRINT EXAMINATIONS OF OSWALD'S PERSONAL EFFECTS

Today, Stuart Pollak of the President's Commission telephoned to request a letter from the FBI showing the extent of the fingerprint analysis of all of the personal effects of Lee Harvey Oswald, so he will have the complete picture in one place. He was advised such a letter will be sent to the Commission in the near future.

ACTION: William Felt, Chicago, Illinois, was station and received this bill, noting the actual course of the bill and was unable to recall the individual from whom it was obtained. For information, the bill was not identified in the Stouffville letter file, nor was it established as being taken from Lee Harvey Oswald. No further action is being taken. This letter is being furnished to the laboratory.
