NOTE: CONTINUED PAGE 2.

NOTE: Atlanta by airtel advised that Stovall telephonically contacted the Atlanta Office and initially demanded to speak to a Negro Agent. He was subsequently contacted and advised that some time in 1960, while working on a home construction project at Carrollton, Kentucky, an unidentified electrician had stated that if Kennedy were elected, he would not live to get out of office.
Stovall stated since the assassination this matter has been bothering him. In view of the allegations it is felt we have the responsibility to conduct a reasonable investigation in an effort to check it out. The results will be subsequently reported and appropriate dissemination made.
