By memo dated 12/5/66, Assistant Attorney General Frank M. Wozencraft furnished the Bureau three communications bearing the signature of which were addressed to the Assistant Attorney General. These letters relate to the assassination of President Kennedy, however, because of the return address it would appear the correspondent is in a mental ward of the Bellevue Hospital in New York.

The enclosures received from the Department appear to be part of the Department's files and therefore when New York responds with the results of their inquiry, the enclosures to the Assistant Attorney General's memo will be returned to the Department.
