

SUMMARY FROM SPANISH

C Letter contained in envelope addressed to the Bureau, from [redacted] Mexico, 1, D. F.

NI Rules

Writer requests the Bureau to render him "official secret aid in finding out who is trying to drive me insane through the use of telepathy, suggestion and thought transmission."

Writer states that "the Mexican authorities are unable to help me so I have appealed to the World Tribunal in The Hague."

Writer states also that "you should assist me in this matter because I am convinced that it has something to do with the death of President Kennedy. I am now in the Mexican Neurological Hospital because I hear voices in different parts of my body, although there is nothing abnormal about me."
