

March 2, 1967

Dear Mr. London,

The New Orleans District Attorney, in his quest for the Louisiana State House, is biting up the wrong geographical tree. There was a conspiracy, all right, but it was hatched in Washington not New Orleans. Oswald was only the hatched man, the brain behind the association was none other than our good friend and President Johnson's closest adviser, Wall Whitman

Rosten. Why Rosten?

(1) Rosten is a member of the Communist conspiracy

They have (the communists) admitted as much to me on two separate occasions.

(2) Mrs. Dixon has told me they suspect Rostow of being a communist, but can't prove it.

(3) A week before the assassination Oswald went to Mexico. Why? A week before the assassination Rostow was out of Washington. I do not know the itinerary of his whole trip, but I do know that he spent at U.C.L.A. The theme of his speech was that "the split between Russia and China (the two monarchs of the communist world) was it really a split,

but reveals an outbreak of "nationalistic feelings" (I don't have to tell you how funny that is)

It is my contention that after his delivery in Los Angeles, Rostow flew to Mexico, rendezvoused with Oswald, and gave him his final instructions.
He then returned to Washington and under the cloak of duplicity watched as the tragic drama of Dallas unfolded itself.

Why should Walt Whitman Rostow want to assassinate John Fitzgerald Kennedy?

Rostow was one of President Kennedy's advisers because he was an expert on guerrilla warfare. It was Rostow in his position as an expert on guerrilla warfare who was instrumental in shaping and formulating the thesis that is known as the "Bay of Pigs". I don't know anything about guerrilla warfare, but the invasion of the Bay of Pigs was any kind of but guerrilla warfare.
The Pentagon is in support of this type of operation.
Mr. President we must have air coverage.

 Rostrow: on the eve of the invasion, (I expect on guerrilla warfare) No, Mr. President we can't use the mighty air arm of the U.S. to support a purely guerrilla action. Think of world wide reaction, think of world wide opinion.
 So there was no air support of an operation that was not a guerrilla operation but the Cuban version of "O"
 day. The rest is history, no air coverage, defeat!
 Robert, damn it, you weren't in Washington

So how the devil would you know, what went on this is contention, contention,

... ..
After the Bay of Pigs, I happened to be in Las Vegas on vacation. By chance, I happened to have dinner with someone who turned out to be both a friend of yours and of Pat & Richard Nixon. He's the president of an oil company here in California but I don't remember his name.
After the dinner show we had a long talk in the lobby of the hotel. We got around to discussing the

(7)

Bay of Pigs. I asked him to get in touch with President Kennedy and explain my theory about Castro. Cridwell he did. Shortly after Castro was kicked out of the White House and went to the number two spot in the State Department. President
Kennedy could not blame Castro for as President He and he alone had to accept full responsibility for the Bay of Pigs.
Then came the Cuban Missile Crisis. President Kennedy took a firm stand against the

the International Communist movement. It was successful. John Kennedy became a threat to the master plan, the master time table for the Communistization of the world.
The target date for the seizure of power in Washington in 1972. To those who will say you are being dramatic, let me remind what when the shots rang out in Dallas, the first thing Lyndon Johnson said "It's a coup". Right or wrong I don't know, but it is one, a true coup.

greater design than his,
anyway, or mine.

President Johnson
ascended to power and after he went thru
a succession of aides, Rothow eased his way back into the White House into the position of President Johnson's chief aide where he is using his power to further the goals of international communism and to defeat America at home and abroad.
That son of a bitch sits on the President's board of advisors that supervises the operation

of the Central Intelligence Agency and he is informing the Soviets of every thing that is going on in that Agency.

You can fool some of the people ~~all~~ <sup>all</sup> of the time, you can fool all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time.

What will be Rostov's downfall? Deceit, a man who has been engaged in deceit for as long as Rostov has can't possibly cover all of his tracks.

How are we going to get him? I'll bet my last dollar that he used government transportation to fly to Mexico or he changed the trip off to government expense. Some where there is a travel voucher. Its up to the FBI to find it.

We have one thing else working for us. I know from Reading Jane Magayic that Rostrow is not popular with the rank and file and they should be questioned extensively to see whether or not they recall anything about his trip to C.I.A., a complete analysis of Rostow's career in Washington must be made. He is responsible for the sabotage of the U2 and he was D's advisor when President Eisenhower made the double take. No, I am not responsible,

 yes, I am responsible.
 Rostow sabotaged the Summit in October of 1963 in his capacity as a state department official he flew to Santa Fe, New Mexico. Twelve days later Khrushchev is assassinated. He got

Peter, too.

I recall my first meeting with Rostow. It was in the early part of 1958 in Jamaica. I was coming down the main drag in Jamaica close to where we had our Neo club annex and a military office attached to the State Department was with him and out "that's him". The pedicab boys thinking they were friends of mine stopped the pedicab. Rostow said "you are dealing with me now" I said "who are you?" and he and he told me. And as he told me you could see his chest swell with pride and eyes gleam with self-satisfaction. He has a tremendous conceit, Boy, it must gild him to play second fiddle to President Johnson.

This is the Communist who has done more damage to America than any other the Communist. This is the man who is slated to take command of America when they pull their coup. This is the greatest American Communist of them all

and it is just a question of time until America and the whole world recognizes him for the genius that he is. How he must hunger for that recognition.
I can see reactions reacting now to these comments, and you ought to see the look of admiration in their eyes. This is Ben Brother. Have the man on the top / give him the attention and recognition he craves and I'll bet he'll eat it up like Christmas Candy.

(16)

And when they get him tell the poor fool what all the rest of know. Only God is Great.
