AUSA RICHARD M. COLEMAN, Los Angeles, advised he had conference with ROBERT CLAYTON BUICK, 3/23/67, at which time BUICK stated he had "the solution" to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, but before he would furnish this solution he demanded that COLEMAN guarantee that he would be released from custody and be given transportation to Mexico where he, BUICK, intends to become a Mexican citizen. COLEMAN states BUICK advised he would never return to United States if above were granted. COLEMAN advised that he told BUICK it was impossible to grant the above conditions and the interview was terminated at that time.

On 3/24/67 BUICK telephonically contacted the Los Angeles Office from his place of incarceration, the Los Angeles County Jail, and stated he was writing a letter to President LYNDON B. JOHNSON with carbon copies to Attorney General RAMSEY CLARK, FBI Director, J. EDGAR HOOVER, and U. S. Attorney for Southern District of California, JOHN K. VAN DE KAMP. BUICK was inquiring as to whether it was a violation of Federal law for the Los Angeles County Jail to censor his mail since he had been advised that any letters to the President of the United States or to Mr. HOOVER have to be censored.
