Two Oswalds Are Subpenaed By Garrison

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has subpenaed two men named Oswald, one of whom works for Standard Coffee Co. where accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was once employed.

The subpoenas for testimony at the district attorney's office were the latest moves in Garrison's continuing investigation into the death of John F. Kennedy.

One of the witnesses, Julius J. Oswald, an employe of Standard Coffee, is scheduled to go to Garrison's office today.

OSWALD, WHO LIVES at 8908 Westgate, declined to tell newsmen about any association he might have had with the man whom the Warren Commission says acted as Kennedy's lone killer at Dallas in 1963.

The other subpoenaed witness, William S. Oswald, 2704 Wytchwood, Metairie, said he believes his entrance into the inquiry may have resulted from a case of mistaken identity.

Questioned yesterday, William Oswald told reporters outside the district attorney's office that Lee Harvey Oswald used his name and address as a reference with Standard Coffee when he applied for a job there in early 1963.

HE SAID HE believes Lee Harvey Oswald really meant to use the name of the witness' uncle, another William Oswald, who lives at 136 Elmeer pl., Metairie.

The uncle, reached by telephone, said Lee Oswald visited him in the summer of 1963. He declined to answer further questions.

Although the subpoenaed William Oswald said he was questioned by the Secret Service after Kennedy's assassination, the Warren Commission report does not list him as a witness. Nor does it include his uncle or Julius Oswald.

Yesterday, attorneys for accused assassination conspirator Clay L. Shaw lost their bid to have Criminal District Court bring Saturday Evening Post writer James Phelan here for immediate public testimony.

JUDGE EDWARD A. Haggerty Jr. tossed the motion out after ruling that it had no basis in law. Shaw's lawyers said Phelan, who wrote a recent article critical of the Garrison inquiry, was "essential to the defense."

At Columbus, Ohio, meanwhile, a municipal court judge gave Louisiana an extra 30 days to perfect its extradition of fugitive witness Gordon Novel. Four state fugitive charges against Novel were continued for hearing until July 3.

Novel, termed a "very important witness" by Garrison, is accused of burglarizing an explosives dump near Houma.
