Being Investigated

Jenkins said he felt the burglary "is of considerable importance to Louisiana," and added he felt it is "In the best interest of the public to give Louisiana authorities additional time to return the Louisianian." However, he warned, "if they don't do something by the end of 60 days, they're out of business. We can't string this on forever. If they have a case, let them get on with it." Novel has said the Houma incident was no burglary at all, contending it was a routine pick-up of explosives for use in connection with the Bay of Pigs invasion.
