DA Files Complaint With Bar Group

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison said today he has lodged a formal complaint with the State Bar Association against an attorney who claims his client was offered a bribe by the DA's office.

Garrison said he made the complaint against Burton Klein, attorney for the one-time roommate of David W. Ferrie, a key figure in the DA's Kennedy death plot investigation.

Klein and his client, Alvin Beauboef, appeared at a news conference here Wednesday and charged that a member of the DA's staff attempted to bribe Beauboef to substantiate claims that there was a plot hatched here at Ferrie's apartment to kill Kennedy.

"For his fraudulent claim that he presents Alvin Beauboef and for his cool willingness to participate in a scheme to obstruct a just and sound investigation," the DA said, "Mr. Klein should be disbarred."

"I have sent a formal complaint about his historically unethical action to the Grievance and Ethics Committee of the Louisiana Bar Association," he added.

Garrison charged yesterday that lawyers representing certain key figures in the Kennedy investigation are being paid by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency. Both Klein and Steven Plotkin, who represents fugitive witness Gordon Novel, have denied taking CIA money.
