Rec CIA letter 9/23/86.

Re New Orleans teletype 5/22/67, instructing Dallas and Miami advise Bureau of any info in file re Mr. ~~WEISS~~ and ~~Double-Chek~~. [redacted] (S)

Bureau attention is directed by mylet 6/2/64, captioned [redacted], Bufile 105-89923. [S] That letter pointed out that the "Miami News", daily newspaper at Miami, Fla., on 6/1/64, cited portions of a current "Look" magazine article entitled "CIA, THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT", written by DAVID WISE and THOMAS B. ROSS. The article stated CIA had operated in Miami under at least three commercial cover names, including Double-Chek Corporation.

The "Miami Herald", in its edition of 6/2/64, quoted Miami Springs attorney ALEX CARSON, President of ~~Double-Chek~~, as stating he had no knowledge of any CIA implication. He said Double-Chek had been inactive since 1961, and its purpose at that time had been as a procurement agency for aviation personnel. The "Miami Herald" article stated ~~Double-Chek~~ had recruited four U.S. fliers killed during the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba.
