Pretrial Hearing For Shaw Monday

A hearing has been set Monday to open the pretrial courtroom skirmishing between Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison and presidential assassination conspiracy defendant Clay L. Shaw.

Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. called the hearing after the state, replying to earlier defense motions, charged that Shaw met in Baton Rouge with Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald to plot the murder of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby, now dead of cancer, gunned down Oswald in the Dallas police station two days after Kennedy's slaying. The Warren Commission placed the sole blame for the President's killing on Oswald.

GARRISON HAS charged that Kennedy died as the victim of a conspiracy hatched in New Orleans. Shaw, who was indicted March 22, for complicity in Kennedy's murder, is free on $10,000 bond.

Answering defense motions yesterday, Garrison's office said Shaw gave both Ruby and Oswald money during a Baton Rouge meeting shortly before Kennedy was killed.

The DA denied the state was compelled, as the defense requested, "to answer in a bill of particulars all of the acts committed by any or all the conspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy."

HIS REPLY, however, named

Ruby as a co-conspirator and cited a number of instances which the DA contends were part of the conspiracy. Among them:

"Clay L. Shaw traveling to Baton Rouge in the Fall of 1963 and there meeting Leo Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby at the Capitol House Hotel and delivering to Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby a sum of money."

Kennedy was slain at Dallas Nov. 22, 1963, as his motorcade drove down Elm st. toward the famous triple overpass. The Warren Commission concluded that Oswald shot Kennedy from a school book depository at the rear of the procession. Garrison has said there were a number of men firing from positions above a grassy knoll in Dealy Plaza.

Meanwhile, another figure in the Garrison investigation, Dean A. Andrews, is seeking a speedy trial on charges of perjury.

Andrew was indicted on accusations that he lied before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury about the relationship between Shaw and the mysterious Clay Bertrand.

THE JEFFERSON Parish attorney said a man he knew as Bertrand telephoned him after Kennedy's death and asked him to represent Oswald. Garrison claims Bertrand and Shaw are the same man.

Andrews, however, told the grand jury he could not say with certainty that Shaw and Bertrand are the same.

Judge Frank Shea said he will rule on the motion for a speedy trial Monday.
