

"Eminently succeeds. A good court-room dram" that bombards the viewer with an array of evidence. This dramatic materialization of witnesses before the eye and ear has much more immediacy and impact than the printed word. Vividly and forcefully presented.

—Bosley Crowther,
New York Times

"Here it is, the people who actually saw something and believed that the truth never did fully reveal itself. The people are real, the incidents are there on the record. Very compelling. A good strong job. It will tend to destroy your peace of mind."

—Archer Winston,
New York Post

"The camera never lies, it is hard not to believe these eye-witness accounts. It is one thing to read written testimony but quite something else to observe witnesses' facial reactions to questions and hear testimony from their own lips. The film should win new sceptics of the Warren Commission over to Lane's side."

—Kathleen Carroll,
New York Daily News
