District Attorney JAMES GARRISON and members of his staff were in Miami in January looking for a Cuban man described as physically powerful and dangerous.

The man is being sought by the District Attorney in connection with the death of President KENNEDY. He is believed to be one of a group of Cubans who, according to a report under investigation, hid behind a billboard on the parade route in Dallas November 23, 1963.

The Cuban sought by the District Attorney's Office is believed to have fled the country-to Cuba, Puerto Rico or possibly the Bahamas-a few steps ahead of investigators.

District Attorney GARRISON has located a witness who is unknown to the FBI named THOMAS BECKHAM, also known as MARK EVANS. BECKHAM, according to MARTIN, was associated with OSWALD and assisted OSWALD in passing out leaflets.

Another witness allegedly located by GARRISON is named DAVID LEWIS, a former employee of W. GUY BANISTER, former Private Investigator at New Orleans and former Special Agent in Charge of the FBI. According to MARTIN, LEWIS indicated that he met LEE HARVEY OSWALD while working for BANISTER in the company of SERGIO ARACHA SMITH and CARLOS QUEROGA. ARACHA SMITH and CARLOS QUEROGA were allegedly active in the Cuban movement in the New Orleans area.

BRINGUIER stated that ALBERTO FOWLER told him that Mayor VICTOR SCHIRO of the City of New Orleans had told FOWLER that Congressman HALE BOGGS had first brought this investigation to the attention of District Attorney JAMES GARRISON.

BRINGUIER advised that it is his understanding that a man named JACK MARTIN, whom he does not know, originally developed the information being investigated by District Attorney JAMES GARRISON.

"When I am writing you this letter I have just returned from a lie detector test which was offered to me by Mr. GARRISON. Some of the general ideas of Mr. GARRISON are that:

- 1) OSWALD was brought to New Orleans by Mr. RILEY from the Riley Coffee Co., and according to Mr. GARRISON this man Mr. RILEY is an anticommunist conservative.
- 2) OSWALD was not a communist but an anticommunist and as that he carried on the assassination.
- 3) They are trying to tie facts and issues that are

BRINGUIER advised that GARRISON is supposedly getting bad information, as an individual (FNU) SANTANANA, who is on probation in Miami, Florida, was brought to New Orleans and questioned by the District Attorney's office and this individual identified ARCACHA SMITH as being in New Orleans in 1964. BRINGUIER advised that (FNU) SANTANANA had SMITH confused with an individual by the name of LOUIS BRETOS, Alfa 66 representative in New Orleans in 1964, who is now living in Miami.

MARTIN advised that the scope of District Attorney JAMES GARRISON's investigation is that there was a conspiracy which originated in the rooms above W. GUY BANNISTER's (deceased) office in New Orleans, and that there was a second assassin firing at President KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas.

[REDACTED] interviewed LEWIS in connection with [REDACTED] and during this interview LEWIS advised that he had been interviewed by the District Attorney's Office and told the District Attorney's Office he had met LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the office of W. GUY BANNISTER. LEWIS claimed that the District Attorney's Office had given him a polygraph test and that he, LEWIS, had passed this test.

BRINGUIER advised that he has been given a lie detector test in which he was asked questions regarding OSWALD's being a member of the Communist Party, and "How did he believe OSWALD acted alone?" He was also questioned as to where he may have met OSWALD; if ARCACHA SMITH knew OSWALD; if RICHARD DAVIS knew OSWALD, and if DAVID FERRIE knew OSWALD. BRINGUIER advised that based upon information received from ALBERTO FOWLER, publicity director, City of New Orleans, he has learned that District Attorney JAMES GARRISON is of the opinion that OSWALD was contacted to assassinate FIDEL CASTRO by a group in New Orleans and this plan could not be carried out. An alternate plan was that some of the individuals in the first plan contacted OSWALD to kill President KENNEDY.

BRINGUIER advised that FOWLER believes the FBI is tapping his telephone. BRINGUIER advised the District Attorney's Office is attempting to locate ARCACHA SMITH.

Also mentioned in questioning by the District Attorney's Office representative was the name W. GUY BANNISTER, former New Orleans private detective, and CARLOS MARCUS, Cuban Consul General, who BRINGUIER said died in Venezuela prior to the assassination.

"District Attorney JIM GARRISON said Saturday that 'arrests will be made, charges will be filed and convictions will be obtained' as a result of his intensive investigation of a New Orleans plot preceding the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, Nov. 22, 1963.

"During a news conference in his office, GARRISON asserted that a plan was developed here which resulted in KENNEDY's death in Dallas. He said the investigation, which records show has been under way since late last year, has proven that the Warren Commission was wrong in its conclusion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD acted alone in murdering the President.

"The district attorney would not elaborate.

"'We already have the names of the people in the initial planning,' he told newsmen. 'We are not wasting out time and we will prove it. Arrests will be made, charges will be filed and convictions will be obtained.'"

NOVELL advised he was contacted during late afternoon of February 21, 1967, by WILLARD ROBERTSON, a Volkswagen distributor in New Orleans, a multi-millionaire and close social friend and financial backer of GARRISON. ROBERTSON allegedly told NOVELL it was imperative they meet, which they did, whereupon ROBERTSON told NOVELL that GARRISON wanted to meet him. Therefore, NOVELL met with ROBERTSON and GARRISON at approximately 5:30 p.m., February 21, 1967. NOVELL said GARRISON opened conversation with inquiry concerning possible places where he, GARRISON, and his staff could hold conferences.

"NOVELL said GARRISON stated he felt the FBI is carefully scrutinizing every move he makes and even possibly has sources within his own ranks. NOVELL said GARRISON asked him if he had been interviewed by the FBI and he informed GARRISON that he had contacted the FBI. GARRISON wanted to know whether his name had come up during the contact with the FBI and NOVELL replied in the negative.

"NOVELL said that GARRISON felt that DAVID FERRIE and his 'nutty' associates were involved in a conspiracy to assassinate KENNEDY. NOVELL said it was GARRISON's contention that the conspirators were anti-Castro, who hoped through the assassination of KENNEDY to be able, through national publicity, to place the blame for the assassination on CASTRO which would result in influencing public opinion to the point where national retribution would be directed against Castro.

GARRISON asked NOVEL whether SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH or FERRIE owned a laundry truck. NOVEL said he told GARRISON that he had observed a step van laundry truck, dark in color, on one occasion parked in front of the Balter Building where SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH had his office. NOVEL said GARRISON then commented "there is a laundry truck mentioned in the files of the FBI in Dallas."

Novel stated GARRISON also asked him if he was acquainted with a girl by the name of SANDRA LARSON. He advised that he told GARRISON he knew a SANDRA LARSON, who was a "sharp gal" who sometimes dated BOB SONGE (phonetic) one of his, NOVEL's, associates in the Jamaican Village Lounge on North Rampart Street. NOVEL said he told GARRISON he had personally heard SANDRA LARSON [REDACTED]

NOVEL stated that District Attorney GARRISON had stated or at least implied that he felt DAVID FERRIE and his "Nutty" associates were involved in a conspiracy in the assassination of President KENNEDY. NOVEL reiterated that GARRISON repeatedly emphasized the name "ROLLAND" as being a possible clue in the conspiracy. NOVEL stated that it is GARRISON's contention that the conspirators were anti-CASTRO who hoped through the assassination of President KENNEDY to be able to, through national publicity, place the blame for the assassination on FIDEL CASTRO, which would result in influencing public opinion to the point where national retribution would be directed against CASTRO.

GARRISON as saying that he would arrest and handcuff any Agent he caught becoming involved in his investigation and would submit him to public scrutiny. NOVEL said GARRISON stated "if they want my files that bad they can buy them." NOVEL stated that he did not furnish GARRISON information concerning his involvement with SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH at the blimp base at Houma, Louisiana, which he had previously furnished to the FBI. However, since GARRISON plans to interview him, NOVEL's, partner, RANCIER EHLINGER, aka Ranny, at 9:30 A.M., February 22, 1967, he felt he would tell GARRISON the whole story prior to the interview with his partner because he felt that RANNY would probably tell GARRISON about it and, secondly, because he felt that by telling GARRISON he would gain his confidence and would be in better graces with GARRISON. NOVEL advised that since he planned to tell GARRISON everything concerning his involvement with SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH, he desired to mention something he had not previously furnished to the FBI concerning the ammunition bunker on the Houma Air Base. NOVEL advised that he and his partner, RANNY, approximately two weeks before taking ARCACHA SMITH and his party to the bunker had cased the bunker and knew pretty well what SMITH would find.

NOVEL telephonically contacted the New Orleans Office on the late afternoon of February 22, 1967, and advised that he and EHLINGER met with District Attorney GARRISON on that date and had furnished GARRISON the information that he had previously furnished to the FBI.. NOVEL said GARRISON questioned them concerning any knowledge that they possessed of any relationship between CLAY SHAW and DAVID FERRIE. NOVEL said that GARRISON implied that SHAW was identical with a CLAY BERTRAND who had contacted Attorney DIAN ANDREWS to represent LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

NOVEL further informed that GARRISON and his associates felt the FBI was monitoring their switchboard and that it appears that if things go

According to NOVEL, GARRISON stated that he feels the FBI is carefully scrutinizing every move he makes and even possibly has sources within his own ranks. NOVEL said GARRISON discussed several methods he felt he would utilize in the future in order to keep his investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY a secret. GARRISON advised NOVEL that the purpose of his contact was that he knew of NOVEL's ability to obtain information and further that NOVEL was very knowledgeable as to happenings in the New Orleans area.

NOVEL related that GARRISON inquired of him as to whether he had been interviewed by the FBI and that he had informed GARRISON that he, NOVEL, had contacted the FBI. GARRISON then inquired as to whether his name had come up during the contact with the FBI, to which NOVEL said he replied in the negative. GARRISON then began to question him about people or names he might know and specifically inquired about DAVID LOUIS, "ROLLAND"; DAVID FERRIE, and MARTIN LAYTON (possibly identical with LAYTON P. MARTENS), associate of FERRIE. NOVEL informed he told GARRISON he knew only DAVID FERRIE of those mentioned. GARRISON then asked him if he knew anyone with the Riley Coffee Company and that he told GARRISON he knew an individual named TEX MEYER, a person with whom he had worked in the past. GARRISON asked him if he had any knowledge of where SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH obtained his financial support while in New Orleans, to which he replied that he did not know with the exception of supporting contributions that SMITH obtained from various individuals.

"District Attorney JAMES GARRISON said today he has 'positively solved the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and will arrest every individual involved-- in the course of time.'

"He said, however, that 'it may be 30 years before we finish. We will make arrests, but they are not imminent.' What he said was largely repetition of previous statements which he has made about the case.

"GARRISON talked with newsmen as he emerged from a luncheon at the Petroleum Club. His remarks at the luncheon were not made public.

"Asked if he had definitely solved the assassination plot, GARRISON said, 'We solved it weeks ago.'

"He said, 'We're working out details of evidence, which probably will take months.'

" 'We know that we're going to be able to arrest every person involved-- at least every person who is still living. I'm sure that there will be convictions.'

"GARRISON said the case is 'very complicated' and posed a riddle for newsmen. He said:

" 'The key to the whole case is through the looking glass. Black is white; white is black.'

"He added: 'I don't want to be cryptic, but that's the way it is.'

"GARRISON said he knows the people of the world are 'champing at the bit' to get details of his investigation. He said he would give the world all the answers.

" 'You have my word of honor on that,' he added.

"The District Attorney contends the plot was hatched in New Orleans.

"GARRISON said the death of WILLIAM DAVID FERRIE would not slow up his investigation. He repeated his belief that FERRIE, who was found dead Wednesday, committed suicide.

" 'The only way people involved can avoid arrest is by committing suicide,' he said.

"GARRISON, who contends that President KENNEDY's death resulted from a plot hatched in New Orleans, has promised there will be arrests and convictions within a few months."

"GARRISON claims that his office discovered the answers he was seeking 'weeks ago' and that now he and his staff are working to build air-tight cases against the individuals involved.

"Although the district attorney says that arrests are 'months away,' he said yesterday: 'The only way they are going to get away from us is to kill themselves.'

"GARRISON said that he would not say they had solved the KENNEDY murder unless he had evidence, 'beyond a shadow of a doubt.'

"He went on to say: 'We know the key individuals, the cities involved and how it was done.'

"GARRISON admitted for the first time he had accepted some aid from Life Magazine in developing his case. 'But our office initiated the investigation,' he said.

"District Attorney JIM GARRISON said Friday his office solved the Kennedy assassination plot 'weeks ago' but is now working to get air-tight cases against the individuals involved. GARRISON said, however, arrests 'are months away.'

"Earlier, GARRISON said the arrests may be '30 years away.'

"However, he later explained that he had been tired and had 'snapped' at questioning newsmen, not actually being serious about the '30 years' statement.

"GARRISON conducted two impromptu press conferences in the lobby of the Shell Oil Co. bldg. The first created a worldwide furor, apparently, when a wire service quoted GARRISON as saying he had solved the plot and arrests were imminent.

"On emerging from the luncheon, GARRISON was confronted with the wire service story that he had solved the plot. 'Why we did this weeks ago,' was GARRISON's reply. 'We're working out details of evidence which probably will take months.

"'We know that we are going to be able to arrest every person involved - at least every person who is still living. I'm sure that there will be convictions.'

"'BEYOND . . . DOUBT'

"GARRISON began by saying, 'My staff and I solved the case weeks ago. I wouldn't say this if we didn't have evidence beyond the shadow of a doubt. We know the key individuals, cities involved and how it was done.

NO 89-69/emh

"According to GARRISON, there were 'several plots.' He said there was a change, 'but that's more than I wanted to say.'

"GARRISON suggested there may be suicides among those actually involved in the plot and those who knew of it but kept quiet. 'The only way they are going to get away from us,' he said, 'is to kill themselves.'

"As reporters crowded closer GARRISON was asked what he had to say about the Warren Commission's chief investigator's charge that he was 'conducting a performance.' GARRISON replied, 'The chief investigator has conducted a performance that will be remembered in history.'

"GARRISON said his office had jurisdiction over the case.

'FINANCED BY LOAN'

"The tall district attorney further revealed that he would be glad to accept funds from private sources to continue the investigation. 'In fact,' said GARRISON, 'our investigation has been financed by a $2,500 loan from a bank since about 48 hours after the story was revealed in the newspapers.'

"A reporter quipped, 'Are you expecting a contribution from the Central Intelligence Agency?' This referred to recent disclosures that the CIA has contributed substantially to organizations such as the National Student Association.

'No,' laughed GARRISON, 'but I'm expecting some from the FBI.'

"GARRISON, for the first time, admitted that he had accepted some aid from Life Magazine in developing his case. 'But our office initiated the investigation,' said GARRISON. He added other news media have also helped.

"You have my word of honor and promise,' continued GARRISON to the newsmen, 'I will give you the story when we make arrests. But it may be months away. We want to get jury verdicts and we are confident we will.'

NO 89-69/emh

"During GARRISON's second impromptu press conference in the Shell Oil Company bldg., the district attorney made the following additional comments, given in part here, in narrative form:

'We know what cities were involved, we know how it was done, in the essential respects; we know the key individuals involved, and we are in the process of developing evidence now. I thought I made that clear days ago.

'On the other hand though, that does not mean any arrests are imminent. There are some individuals that I would like to arrest now, some that I know . . . will be around to arrest later. I have to take the risk that they will stay around because you can develop a better case if you prolong arrests until you can have the whole group of key individuals.

'Now I may have contributed to some misunderstanding about imminence because I am so darn tired I guess I snap at some reporters who keep questioning me, and they said, "will arrests be imminent?" and I said no, they'll be maybe in the next 30 years.

SIDESTEPS QUESTION

'Sorry, it won't take that long but they're not that imminent because we're now building a case, and I might add, it's a case we will not lose. And anybody that wants to bet against us is invited to, but they will be disappointed.'

"Asked if he believes that OSWALD did not shoot President KENNEDY, GARRISON replied: 'I don't want to get involved in speculations as to individuals, but I will say that there's no question about the fact that there was a plot and there were a number of individuals involved, and we will make arrests based on that and we will make charges based on that and we will obtain convictions based on that.'

"Asked again if OSWALD was involved, the district attorney answered, 'I can't answer that.'

"Questioned about the initiation of the plot, GARRISON said there 'were several plots, and a change of course did occur. Now, that's more that I wanted to say.'

"Replying to a question as to whether FERRIE's death will hamper the investigation, GARRISON stated, 'No, no, it created a problem as to time because I think Mr. FERRIE possibly would have . . . told us in time, but I'm not going to pretend that it entered the case.'

OTHER SUICIDES

"'You know I could say, well, we had a great case but it ended here, but I'm not going to say that. We're building a case that is not going to be ended by the death of anyone.'

"Asked if he feels there is a possibility that other principals in the investigation may be killed or may commit suicide, he replied, 'I think that there will probably be other suicides, yes.'

"Locally, GARRISON is known to have considered a theory that a group of anti-Castroites had been plotting to assassinate Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO. The group then later changed its target to President KENNEDY.

"When GARRISON said there had been 'several plots,' it was believed that this plan was one he had in mind.

"One aspect of the theory was that OSWALD was to have been the gunman in the CASTRO plot which supposedly collapsed when he failed to enter Cuba.

"When the accused Presidential assassin was denied entry to Cuba, the target was switched to KENNEDY, according to the theory."

'Sometime during the month of October, 1966, about five months ago, I was with Mr. Garrison on an airplane from New Orleans to New York. During the trip we discussed at some length my theory that someone besides Lee Harvey Oswald might have been involved in the assassination of President Kennedy. Jim Garrison examined me in very searching detail about this matter, and he subsequently told me that as a result of our conversation, he had decided to reopen his investigation on the subject.

'He had previously arrested a suspect, a person who he thought might know something about the matter, but he had turned the man loose when the news media had released information indicating that Lee Harvey Oswald had acted alone. When I saw Mr. Garrison from time to time during the succeeding months, he reported each time he was making progress and that in due course he expected to have an announcement and that he expected arrests would be made.'"

"Garrison, however, says, 'I have no reason to believe Oswald killed anybody on Nov. 22, 1963.'

"The DA says he has solved the assassination case and promises arrests and convictions. But the timetable for these actions has ranged all the way from a few weeks away to 30 years, depending on which statement of Garrison's you read. He later said he was joking about the 30 years.

"Ironically, the person least happy about all the attention is Garrison, according to his own public statements.

"When the story first broke, he refused to confirm or deny it. Two days later he acknowledged the probe was under way, and castigated the States-Item for revealing it, complaining that the 'premature publicity' had slowed down his investigation.

"He said that instead of having arrests within 'a few weeks' it would now be 'a few months.'

"'That story' is the original story published Feb. 17 by the States-Item. The fact is that a reporter showed him a copy of the story the previous day. He looked at the first page, threw it down and said: 'I will not comment on this. I refuse to confirm or deny it.'

"'Go ahead,' said Garrison.

"The dead man is David William Ferrie, the self-styled psychologist, pilot, hypnotist and private investigator who Garrison calls 'one of the most important individuals in history.'

"This assessment of Ferrie is curious in the light of a previous statement by Garrison that 'none of the people so far named' are very important in the investigation. Ferrie's name was the first to be mentioned, largely because he came forward of his own accord to tell his story after it was revealed that the investigation was under way.

"The day before Ferrie died, Garrison said no arrests were planned in the case 'for months.' After Ferrie died, Garrison said he had planned to arrest Ferrie within a week.

"When Ferrie died, Garrison said his office had reason to believe the death was a suicide. As of yesterday afternoon, Garrison was still maintaining his contention that Ferrie took his own life.

"But Coroner Nicholas Chetta says Ferrie died from natural causes. The autopsy revealed he was killed by a brain hemorrhage. The coroner says there is no way for a suicide-bent person to induce such a hemorrhage at will.

"Even Garrison admits that Ferrie was nowhere near Dallas on the day of the assassination.

"FERRIE's death was a shock. He was found in bed Wednesday morning at his messy, incredibly cluttered apartment, already rigid in rigor mortis.

PLANNED ARREST - DA

"Suicide, said GARRISON. He said he had planned to arrest FERRIE within a few days. He added that:

'Evidence developed by our office had long since confirmed that he was involved in events culminating in the assassination of President KENNEDY.'

"Coroner CHETTA, after two days of tests, said death was due to natural causes, but that it will remain officially unclassified until final toxicological tests are completed Tuesday.

"However, GARRISON repeated his belief that FERRIE was a suicide.

"Investigation continued, he said, and the only way 'people involved can get away from us is to kill themselves.'

"District Attorney JIM GARRISON says he does not expect anything to happen 'in the next few days' in his probe of an alleged plot to assassinate President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

"It was not immediately clear if something was expected to happen later, and GARRISON, in answering newsmen's questions, did not go into any detail.

"Arriving at his office in the Criminal District Court Bldg. Saturday, he said he had nothing new to report except that he had assigned someone to question a Baton Rouge man who claims the late DAVID FERRIE told him of President KENNEDY about a month before the assassination. 'We will get him and it won't be long.'

"Asked if he would see JACK MARTIN, a private investigator who told an assistant DA that FERRIE was supposed to have been the getaway pilot in a conspiracy and later said the whole thing was a figment of his imagination, GARRISON answered: "No comment.'

"PERRY R. RUSSO testified today that he overheard LEE HARVEY OSWALD, DAVID FERRIE and CLAY L. SHAW plot the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. RUSSO told a special criminal court hearing that in September, 1963, he overheard a conversation among FERRIE and two men introduced to him as LEON OSWALD and CLEM BERTRAND. He identified LEON OSWALD from photos as LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the accused assassin of President KENNEDY and, in a dramatic moment, he placed his hand over the head of defendant CLAY SHAW, identifying him as the man he knew as CLEM BERTRAND.

"He identified SHAW as one of three men who discussed ways to escape after he said they plotted assassination of JOHN F. KENNEDY. RUSSO said a man he knew as LEON OSWALD, whom he later identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD from pictures, that OSWALD, DAVID FERRIE and BERTRAND, who he called CLEM BERTRAND, met in DAVID FERRIE's apartment."

"PERRY RAYMOND RUSSO identified a photograph of DAVID FERRIE. RUSSO identified photographs of a hallway, the living room and a second hallway leading to a back entrance to the apartment of DAVID FERRIE at 330 Louisiana Avenue Parkway. RUSSO claimed he had gone to FERRIE's house often and that FERRIE had visited his house on many occasions in 1963 and 1962. RUSSO testified that during the summer of 1963, FERRIE had visited his home late at night on several occasions and claimed that FERRIE had given him an 'open book' invitation to come to his house at any time.

"RUSSO testified that around the middle of September, he had occasion to go to FERRIE's house and as he walked in there seemed to be some sort of party in progress. RUSSO testified that about ten persons were sitting around drinking. After a while there were only four persons left in FERRIE's apartment and he, RUSSO, had waited around because he did not have a ride home. He identified the others as FERRIE, a person he had seen several times known to him as LEON OSWALD, and a third person, CLEM BERTRAND. RUSSO was asked by District Attorney GARRISON whether or not he saw the man he knew as BERTRAND in the court room and RUSSO replied in the affirmative and pointed to the defendant CLAY SHAW.

"In describing the conversation that went on in the room, RUSSO testified that DAVID FERRIE began the conversation pacing back and forth as he talked. RUSSO said FERRIE stressed 'diversification' in a plot to kill the president."

"As I stated to your office investigator, Mr. LOUIS IVON, in a telephone conversation last night, April 14, 1967, I'm willing to take a lie-detector test at this time provided the following questions are asked to me.

NO 89-69/lrs

"Question No. 1.

"Have I ever met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and talked to him at any other time in my life besides that of August 16, 1963, when I visited his house on Magazine St., New Orleans, when I tried to infiltrate his Communist organization, 'Fair Play for Cuba Committee' and of which visit I immediately reported to Lieutenant MARTELLO of the New Orleans Police Department and of which visit I gave full details to the FBI and the Secret Service days after the assassination of the late President KENNEDY?

"Answer to question No 1.-- No.

"Question No 2.

"In talking to Mr. LEE HARVEY OSWALD on August 16, 1963, what impression did I receive about him? "

"Answer to question No. 2.

"Mr. LEE HARVEY Oswald was intelligent and a very well instructed Communist.

"Question No. 3.

"Have I ever met LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the company of DAVID FERRIE and SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH at Mancuso's Restaurant on Camp and Lafayette Streets.

"Answer to Question No. 3.-- No.

"Question No. 4.

"Isn't it true that on January 21, 1967, you, Mr. GARRISON, told me that several witnesses had testified that they had seen me with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, DAVID FERRIE and SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH at Mancuso's Restaurant on Camp and Lafayette Streets.

"Answer to question No. 4.-- Yes.

"Question No. 5.

"Based upon this testimony by these witnesses stated in question No. 4 in regard to me being with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, do I believe that these witnesses be prosecuted by law for giving false testimony?

NO 89-69/lrs

"Answer to question No. 5.

"Because these witnesses are lying, I believe that they all must be prosecuted by law.

"Question No. 6.

"Have I ever been at the anti-CASTRO training camp of the Christian Democratic Movement which was located across Lake Pontchartrain from New Orleans in the year of 1963?

"Answer to question No. 6.

No. I have never been at that training camp.

"Question No. 7.

"Isn't it true that you, Mr. GARRISON, told me on January 21, 1967, that you had witnesses that would testify that they had seen me at that training camp?

"Answer to question No. 7.--- Yes.

"Question No. 8.

"Based upon the testimony of these witnesses, what should the District Attorney's office do about these witnesses.

"Answer to question No 8.

"Because these witnesses have lied, they must all be prosecuted by law.

"Question No. 9.

"Have I ever been threatened to be killed by an individual, who appears to me to be one of your witnesses, because I had come to your office on several occasions?

"Answer to question No. 9.

"Yes, my life has been threatened by an individual on January 23, 1967, who in a telephone conversation with my wife told her that he was going to kill me if I continued going to the District Attorney's office to give them information.

NO 89-69/lrs

"After my wife recognized the voice of JACK MARTIN on a tape recorded conversation in your office on January 24, 1967, you Mr. GARRISON, told me that you also thought it was JACK MARTIN because information about my visits to your office had leaked out to him.

"On January 28, 1967, Mr. JACK MARTIN confessed in front of Mr. LOUIS IVON and myself that he had called my house and threatened to kill me.

"Question No. 10.

"Have I ever been present at any time, at any place where there has been a discussion about a plot to assassinate the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY?

"Answer to Question No. 10.

"No. I have never been present nor did I ever overhear any conversation in regard to a plot to kill the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

"I am also requesting that a copy of all your questions and the answers by me be given to me for my record purposes before I leave this office this date, April 15, 1967, in the company of my wife Mrs. MARIA S. QUIROGA. I also request that the lie-detector test be given in the presence of my wife.

Source: HUGH AYNESWORTH
Date: April 26, 1967
To Whom: The Houston FBI Office
By Whom: HUGH AYNESWORTH, "Newsweek" correspondent.

A summary of the information contained in Aynesworth's written notes is set forth below. Everything appearing below in this memorandum is taken directly from material Aynesworth made available.

Garrison's investigation of the alleged "conspiracy" began in November, 1956. The central figure of Garrison's "plot" from the very first was David W. Ferrie, a New Orleans pilot. Ferrie is reported to have been a brilliant misfit, who had worn several disguises, engaged in provocative talk, and in the role of an anti-Castro freedom fighter had often denounced President Kennedy because of the Bay of Pigs invasion disaster. He had been involved with Cuban exiles in several abortive plots, and had been discharged as an airline pilot on grounds of homosexuality. Although the FBI reportedly had checked on Ferrie carefully, no evidence was developed in 1963 or thereafter that Ferrie was actually involved.

Garrison concluded otherwise. During the early stages of his investigation, Garrison questioned Ferrie for hours, tested his statements with a polygraph, and interrogated his acquaintances. Ferrie steadfastly denied any involvement. Personal acquaintances of Ferrie insisted that Ferrie called Garrison's investigation a "farce" until his death in February, 1967.

After Ferrie's death, Garrison declared the Warren Report had been a complete failure and remarked "You don't send boys to do a man's job." Shortly thereafter Clay L. Shaw was formally charged and a search of his apartment produced articles such as chains and whips which were widely publicized.

Perry Raymond Russo, a former friend of David Ferrie, testified he had been present in Ferrie's apartment in September, 1963, when Lee Harvey Oswald, Ferrie, and others discussed the assassination conspiracy. Russo, under cross examination, was unable to provide such information that he should have possessed if he had actually witnessed these activities. To buttress Russo's testimony, Garrison produced a twentyseven year old Negro, Vernon Bundy, a narcotics addict beginning at age thirteen, who was then in the Orleans Parish Prison. Bundy testified he observed Shaw give money to Oswald.

Perry Russo stated he had offered aid to Garrison only after Ferrie had died. Russo was initially interviewed by Assistant District Attorney Andrew J. Sciambra on February 25, 1967, which was two days after Garrison had announced he had "solved" the case.

learned that Sciambra wrote up the interview of Russo in a 3,500 word memorandum to Garrison. has stated that Garrison let him read this memorandum and nothing in it made any mention about a party, a plot, or a "Bertrand," a name Russo later stated was used by Clay Shaw. In this memorandum, Russo reportedly stated he had seen Clay Shaw only twice, once while attending a New Orleans speech delivered by President Kennedy and once in an automobile with Ferrie. When challenged by Sciambra claimed he must have simply forgotten to include the crucial details of the conspiracy session in his report.

stated information available to him indicated that it was only after "repeated prodding" while under hypnosis and the influence of a so-called "truth serum" that Russo had been able to recall the meeting in Ferrie's apartment.

Another dubious "fact" was the recollection by Russo of the presence of a "Clem Bertrand" at the session in Ferrie's apartment. This recalled information in the Warren Report that a New Orleans lawyer, Dean Andrews, had stated "Cley" Bertrand had telephoned him to represent Oswald. Andrews specializes in defending homosexuals and has often contradicted himself. Andrews has given at least two conflicting descriptions of Bertrand and has stated the alleged telephone call received from Bertrand occurred while Andrews was under sedation in a New Orleans hospital. After Garrison had Andrews indicted for perjury, Andrews insisted that "Bertrand" positively was not Cley Shaw.

The most persistent critic of Garrison is Gordon Novel, a night club owner and former electronics salesman, who claims he helped Garrison until he found out what a "ridiculous farce" the whole thing was. Novel was interviewed by Aynesworth several weeks ago and stated Garrison asked him to drug Ferrie with an atropine dart and was to use other "bizarre ways" to soften Ferrie up, in Garrison's words, "to tell us what we want to know."

Garrison has also received countless tips, bits and snatches of information from the kinds of characters who are always attracted to a sensational case. However, up to this date, Garrison's case rests primarily on the testimony of Perry Russo and Vernon Bundy.

In order to figure out this shaky brief, Garrison has been forced to resort to unorthodox tactics. Considerable proof has been developed that several peripheral characters involved in the investigation have had their lives threatened, have been intimidated and harassed and have even been offered bribes for favorable testimony.

In Dallas, Sergio Arcacha, a former Cuban exile leader in New Orleans is fighting extradition on a charge of munitions burglary which was also brought against Gordon Novel. Garrison has repeatedly admitted that Arcacha is not involved in his plot. Arcacha has informed Garrison he would gladly talk in the presence of someone from the Dallas Police Department, the FBI, or an attorney being present. Garrison recently stated "We don't want to talk in front of them."

Mrs. Sandra Koffett McMains, a former girlfriend of Russo residing in Omaha, Nebraska, contradicted Russo's testimony she was at the "party" at Ferrie's apartment in 1963, and stated she did not meet Ferrie until 1965. Garrison's men visited her at midnight one night, and promised her new clothes and "expenses" if she would return to New Orleans. She refused and fled to Iowa. Her attorneys claim she is afraid to return to New Orleans for fear of physical harm.

One John Cancler, a notorious burglar, has told attorneys of Clay Shaw that he was released from jail in a "deal" provided he would enter Shaw's apartment and "plant something."

Alvin R. Beaubouef, 6708 Villery, New Orleans, Louisiana, was perhaps the closest person to David Ferrie in 1963. Beaubouef was a teenager then and was single. He is now married and has a small child. The following account of the bribery attempt against Beaubouef can be documented with testimony of reputable attorneys and a tape recording.

Beaubouef was arrested in November, 1963, when he returned to New Orleans from a trip to Texas in the company of Dave Ferrie. Ferrie dropped Beaubouef off in front of Ferrie's apartment to run in and obtain hypodermic needles and some photographs from Ferrie's apartment. As Beaubouef was running from the front door of this apartment, he ran directly into an investigator from the District Attorney's Office and the photographs were taken from him. These photographs are now in Garrison's possession and are being held over Beaubouef's head.

A few days after Ferrie died in February, 1967, Louis Iven, Garrison's Chief Investigator, and Lynn Loisel, City Police Officer assisting Garrison in his probe, went to the home of Beaubouef. They told him they had plenty of money and influence and they wanted him as a witness for the prosecution. Beaubouef insisted that his discussion with them be continued after consulting his attorney, Hugh Exnicics. Iven telephoned Exnicics and set up the appointment for March 10, 1967.

On March 10, 1967, Iven did not appear but Loisel did. Exnicics had set up equipment to make a tape recording of the entire conversation, which lasted more than thirty minutes. The following transpired:

Loisel stated he had talked with Beaubouef the previous evening and had offered him liberal expense money. He also told Beaubouef "the boss" is in a position to put him in a job. Loisel also stated they would make a hero out of Beaubouef instead of a villain. Loisel stated everything would be to Beaubouef's satisfaction and that by changing the story around they could eliminate any possibility that Beaubouef could be charged in the conspiracy. Loisel said the story could be typed up in such a way that Beaubouef would be free and clear.

The attorney asked just what Loisel meant by "expense" money and Loisel replied "I would venture to say... Well I'm, you know... fairly certain we could put $3,000 on him just like that, you know." "I'm sure we'd help him financially and I'm sure we, real quick, we would get him a job." Loisel went on to explain that Garrison was not interested in Ferrie's "personal" life, obviously meaning that any reference to homosexuality would be forgotten.

Exnicics stated "Well now Lynn, you're speaking about the District Attorney, Jim Garrison, and his ability to place Al in a responsible pilot's position with an airline?"

Loisel replied "That's correct according to Al's own ability."

Exnicios asked Loisel whether Garrison was aware of this offer and he replied "That's right."

Exnicios then asked what Beaubouef could testify to and Loisel replied that Garrison had a witness (obviously Russo) who placed Ferrie, Clay Shaw, Oswald, and two Cubans in a room together, he believed in Ferrie's apartment. Loisel added "Al was as close to Dave as anyone could have been." Loisel then laid out the plot scene, with the three men talking about the assassination, discussing cross fire and escape routes, with Ferrie and Shaw arguing, and stated Beaubouef's testimony would be "along that line."

Exnicios then asked Loisel whether Beaubouef was actually at the meeting and Loisel acknowledged he was not.

Exnicios then asked how Beaubouef could testify and Loisel replied "Well, Al is in...Al, being as close to Ferrie...as to know the whole thing from beginning to end."

Exnicios pointed out if Beaubouef knew about this and did not tell it, he was committing a crime and Loisel replied since Dave Ferrie was gone, Beaubouef would pretend he was afraid of Ferrie and had only come forward with this information after Ferrie was dead. Loisel went on to point out that Beaubouef now has a family and that Ferrie could have threatened to harm Beaubouef's family if Beaubouef revealed this. Loisel pointed out Beaubouef's action in releasing his information could now be considered his patriotic duty and he would be placing his family at the mercy of the District Attorney's Office in order to clear his conscience.

At this point Exnicios sent Loisel out of the room and had Beaubouef come in. Beaubouef's statement was "No matter what he says I don't know anything about the assassination." Beaubouef apparently was not aware of what Garrison's men wanted. Beaubouef said he felt he should tell them something or they would not pay him. Finally Beaubouef told his attorney to determine if Loisel would still get him the airline job even if he was not of any value to them.

Loisel then returned to the room and he agreed to check with "the boss" to determine if they would get Beaubouef the job. Exnicios then had Loisel repeat the three offers, involving $3,000, a job with an airline, and no involvement of Beaubouef in the case.

After the above meeting was over Exnicios rushed the tape recording over to the Jefferson County District Attorney Langdrige inasmuch as the bribe attempt had occurred in that jurisdiction. Langdrige played this tape for several people, including Attorney Monk Zeldon. He also played this tape for Shaw's attorneys, Bill Wegmann and Irvin Dymond. Exnicios then travelled to Washington, D. C., and tried to sell the tape to Walter Sheridan, an NBC newsmen, for $5,000. Exnicios claimed he was offered $500 but refused and came back to New Orleans with the tape.

When Garrison's office learned that this tape existed, Loisel returned to Beaubouef's house and, in the presence of Beaubouef's wife, told him that if he did anything with the tape he would be hurt. Beaubouef was taken to the District Attorney's Office and kept for six or seven hours, during which time he was intimidated again with the pictures and made to sign a statement that he did not take the visit by Loisel and Ivon as a bribe offer.

Aynesworth personally visited Beaubouef on April 24, 1967, and talked with him for two hours. Beaubouef said he did not want to say or do anything because of the possible embarrassment of the photographs which Garrison had. When asked what he would do if this matter came up in court, Beaubouef stated he would tell the truth. Beaubouef stated he feared for his life if anything happened.

In addition to the above, Aynesworth heard rumors involving alleged threats to two other individuals:

Carlos Quiroga, a Cuban Refugee, was allegedly threatened twice by one Jack Martin. Garrison admitted this and had Martin apologize.

One Layton Martens, reportedly a homosexual, was allegedly threatened but details are unknown to Aynesworth.

"District Attorney JIM GARRISON today took issue with U. S. Central Intelligence Agency testimony before Warren Commission and charges CIA gave Warren Commission 'fake photograph' of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

"GARRISON's reply made after CIA denied published reports that OSWALD may have been acting as undercover agent for CIA.

"This article reported that GARRISON accused CIA of producing 'fake photograph' when Warren Commission asked for a picture of OSWALD and a 'Cuban companion' leaving Cuban Embassy at Mexico City. GARRISON claimed photograph of OSWALD and a burly Cuban taken by concealed camera operated by CIA Agents.

"GARRISON claimed when Warren Commission asked for photograph of OSWALD and companion, CIA presented photograph of a balding, stocky, middle aged man who obviously was neither LEE OSWALD nor his companion.

"GARRISON stated that the Director and Deputy Director of CIA were very careful not to mention to Warren Commission they had produced wrong picture.

DA JIM GARRISON said he will seek a Senate investigation of what he calls a Central Intelligence Agency coverup of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's assassination. According to the article, in an exclusive interview last night, GARRISON said that the CIA and Federal Bureau of Investigation cooperated in concealing the facts behind the assassination from the Warren Commission and from the American Public. GARRISON reportedly said he will take steps this week to convince the Senate of the need for a full-scale investigation.

GARRISON also confirmed a copyrighted story appearing in the States-Item on Friday of last week which revealed that GARRISON's investigation centers around evidence of CIA involvement in KENNEDY's death. The District Attorney said he has learned the truth behind the assassination and charged that the CIA has known all along that the Warren Commission's report is untrue in its conclusion that KENNEDY was shot by LEE HARVEY OSWALD acting alone.

According to the article, GARRISON asserted that the Intelligence Agency duped the Commission by flooding its members with a gush of irrelevant information in order to obscure the truth.

GARRISON said OSWALD was not a Communist, as depicted by the Warren Commission, but in actuality, a revolutionary working closely with anti-Castro organizations in New Orleans and Dallas, using his Communist cover as a mask for his real activities.

The article stated GARRISON did not say how he would convince the Congress that an investigation is necessary, but it was thought he may seek the aid of Senator RUSSELL B. LONG.

The article continued that GARRISON, stating his opinions strongly for the first time, charged, "The Federal Agents who concealed vital knowledge regarding President KENNEDY's assassination and their superiors who are now engaged in a dedicated effort to discredit and obstruct the gathering of evidence in the case are guilty of being accessories after the fact to one of the cruelest murders in our history."

The article further reported GARRISON as saying that Federal Agents in New Orleans "would necessarily know the fact that OSWALD was employing a cover in his Fair Play for Cuba activities, and would well know the true nature of his roll here; they would know well that he was hired to engage in this sham activity well before he came to New Orleans."

"And, yet, they remained silent while evidence was presented to the Warren Commission, to the American people and to the world that this man was an individual engaged in meaningless, lonesome activities - that he was a free-lance Communist who had no connection, no case agents or companions."

"These Federal Agents would know well that OSWALD was engaged in a clandestine operation with revolutionary anti-Castro Cubans and that he was shepherded everywhere he went in New Orleans by an individual known to have been in the employ of the CIA."

"And they would know well that when LEE OSWALD was in Dealey Plaza in Dallas, he was not alone."

The article continued that GARRISON said, "In spite of their detailed knowledge of OSWALD and his associates in New Orleans, these agents have remained silent while none of OSWALD's significant contacts were called before the Warren Commission." "They remained silent while the men of the Warren Commission were presented an endless parade of trivia, from OSWALD's grades in grammar school to a study of his hairs." According to the article, GARRISON asserted that missing from the material presented to the Warren Commission was any mention of significant evidence relating to "active Cuban revolutionaries and to Federal Agents who had close contact with them."

The article reported that GARRISON also said "The plain truth is that our Federal intelligence agencies are implacably determined to do whatever is necessary to block any further inquiry into the facts of the assassination." "The arrogant, totalitarian efforts of these federal agencies to obstruct the discovery of the truth is a matter which I intend to bring to light when we have finished doing the job they should have done."

GARRISON maintained that "It is my considered judgment that the members of the Warren Commission did not know that significant evidence was being withheld from them. I am sure that they did not know, for example, that a picture of OSWALD at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City was kept hidden from them because his Cuban companion was a man who had worked for CIA."

The article stated that GARRISON concluded the interview with a plea for each citizen to ask his representatives in Washington for an investigation of the matter. GARRISON added, "No government agency, no matter how powerful, is more important than the truth. Whether these agencies are aware of it or not, JOHN F. KENNEDY was President of all of us and the truth about his death belongs to all of us."

This article reported that the District Attorney's Office drew up a subpoena which will be directed to CIA Director RICHARD HELMS to produce a "true photograph" of the accused presidential assassin and a burly Cuban which GARRISON contends was taken by CIA Agents in front of the Cuban Embassy at Mexico City in November, 1963.

The article said the District Attorney stated the picture was taken by a concealed camera as the two men emerged from the Cuban Embassy at Mexico City a few days before the assassination.

According to the article, GARRISON said the CIA produced a "fake photograph" because "one or both of those men were employed by an agency of the Federal Government." That fake photograph is now immortalized in the Warren Commission Report as 'photograph of an unidentified man.'

"BURTON KLEIN, representing BEAUBOUF, said his client was offered $3,000 and a job if he would 'help substantiate the alleged plot' against KENNEDY.

"KLEIN said BEAUBOUF had signed an affidavit denying the bribery attempt 'because of threats and coercion.'

"The affidavit, signed by BEAUBOUF on April 12, has been forwarded to the Ethics and Grievances Committee of the State Bar Association by GARRISON.

"A story about the alleged bribe attempt appeared in a national magazine this week, and GARRISON contends the story and its supporting tape were offered for sale by still another lawyer who represented BEAUBOUF. In his April 12 statement, BEAUBOUF said a lawyer suggested to him that the tape could be sold.

"Asked for comment, GARRISON declared: 'It's not worth commenting on. The only important thing is the truth.'

"In still other developments yesterday, the DA's office directed a court-sanctioned subpoena to the CIA while the U. S. attorney general ordered an FBI agent not to testify before the grand jury here.

"Dist. Atty. JIM GARRISON said Sunday night Lee Harvey Oswald did not kill President John F. Kennedy and charged that the Central Intelligence Agency 'through devious ways and through intermediaries is actually paying lawyers to block the completion' of his investigation of the presidential assassination.

"GARRISON, who began his own probe last fall of the Nov. 22, 1963, slaying in Dallas, Tex., of KENNEDY said the CIA is guilty of 'a criminal act.'

"And if the director of the CIA and the top officials of the CIA were in the jurisdiction of Louisiana, I would charge them without hesitation,' GARRISON said in a 23-minute interview on WWL-TV.

"GARRISON, this city's unorthodox prosecutor for six years, said he would include CIA Director RICHARD HELMS 'because he has to know what he's doing.'

"The Warren Commission concluded that LEE HARVEY OSWALD a New Orleans-born ex-Marine who went to the Soviet Union for 2½ years, acted alone in killing the President.

"OSWALD, who spent the summer of 1963 here before going to Dallas in October, was killed two days after the assassination by JACK RUBY, who has since died.

"Last March 1, GARRISON arrested CLAY SHAW, 54, a wealthy retired businessman, on charges of conspiring to murder the President. Since then, a grand jury has indicted SHAW on the same charge. He is free on $10,000 bond.

"The Central Intelligence Agency began its criminal activities, in my judgement," GARRISON said, "immediately after the assassination when they failed to reveal to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in its entirety what its activities were in New Orleans when LEE OSWALD was working for it and it's compounded them since by essentially criminal activities by making every possible effort to block our investigation."

"Asked if OSWALD fired the fatal shots in Dallas, GARRISON replied: "No, LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not even shoot President KENNEDY. He did not fire a shot from the Book Depository Building... he did not touch a gun on that day. He was a decoy at first. And then he was a patsy and then he was a victim."

"This is how GARRISON answered the next question about who did kill the President:

"Oh I can say who did without any question, and we know the group and we know some of the names of the group. But we don't know which one was standing where and we can't find out with the CIA keeping its vaults locked.

"They were former employees of the CIA. We managed to get the names of some of them in a way I can't describe here, but we cannot find out through any government agency where they are located now and we have a stone wall there as far as identification of the other individuals.

"But I can say the rest of them are Cubans who were training in New Orleans."

According to the article, District Attorney JAMES GARRISON did not comment on whether he thought the alleged assassins are still alive. He said their whereabouts are being concealed by the Central Intelligence Agency. The article also quoted District Attorney JAMES GARRISON as saying the Central Intelligence Agency was making every effort possible to prevent a trial.

In regard to GORDON NOVEL, the article quoted District Attorney GARRISON as saying when GORDON NOVEL first fled from New Orleans, he headed straight for Mc Clean, Virginia, which is the Central Intelligence Agency suburb. This is not surprising because GORDON NOVEL was a former Central Intelligence Agency employee in the early nineteen sixties. District Attorney JAMES GARRISON called NOVEL "a house guest of the Central Intelligence Agency", who was in the position of "a canary visiting a cat who he thinks is a friend of his."

The article further reported that District Attorney JAMES GARRISON said he did not believe the Central Intelligence Agency planned the KENNEDY murder or knew of it beforehand but added, however, that "It is entirely possible that at the working level there were individuals - who are still not clear that had an awareness of it, but as far as the individuals participating, they were not, in our regard, Central Intelligence Agency men as of the day of the assassination."

The article further reported that District Attorney JAMES GARRISON said the Central Intelligence Agency refused

"District Attorney JIM GARRISON has announced he will make further arrests later in his KENNEDY assassination probe and has reiterated his call for a congressional investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency. GARRISON said yesterday during an appearance on the ABC radio-television program 'Issues and Answers' that 'we are going to defer any other arrests' until later but 'there will be other arrests and they will probably be before the trial' of retired businessman CLAY L. SHAW. GARRISON said: KENNEDY was not killed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD who the Warren Commission concluded was the lone assassin. The President was killed by a group of conspirators made up of Latin Americans opposed to FIDEL CASTRO and of former CIA employees. OSWALD himself was not a CIA agent but an intelligence employee of the government. The CIA, although not involved in the plot, 'concealed from the Warren Commission, from the American people, from the President and from the world, the fact that its employees, its former employees, were involved in the assassination of the President."

VERNON BUNDY, an Orleans Parish prisoner, testified in District Attorney JAMES GARRISON's KENNEDY assassination probe that he, BUNDY, saw CLAY L. SHAW pass money to someone on the New Orleans lakefront. BUNDY indicated to source he had been offered a deal by District Attorney GARRISON if he would testify to a story about SHAW. According to source, this conversation allegedly took place several weeks ago in New Orleans Parish Prison prior to the time BUNDY testified at the hearing in Criminal District Court. At the time of the conversation, BUNDY was undecided what course of action to take but told source he, BUNDY, would do anything to get out of his sentence. BUNDY indicated indirectly, his testimony was not true without stating directly so, or that a story had been given to him to tell."

"Dist. Atty. JIM GARRISON told Criminal District Court today his office has broken a telephone number code which he said appears both in the notebooks of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and accused KENNEDY murder conspirator CLAY L. SHAW.

"The result of the decoding, he asserted, was that the 1963 unpublished telephone number of JACK RUBY at Dallas was discovered in both OSWALD's and SHAW's notebooks.

"GARRISON made the disclosure in a formal answer to defense motions filed in Judge EDWARD A. HAGGERTY, JR.'s court.

"The answer was made by the DA to a motion filed by the defense last week. Defense attorneys sought the return of SHAW's notebook, which was seized March 1 along with five cartons of materials taken from teh defendant's handsome French Quarter home.

NO 89-69/emh

"GARRISON has charged that OSWALD, SHAW and the late DAVID W. FERRIE conspired here in September, 1963, to kill President JOHN F. KENNEDY at Dallas.

"SHAW was indicted March 22 and is free on $10,000 bond. OSWALD, the man the Warren Commission named as KENNEDY's lone slayer, was shot to death by RUBY in Dallas Police headquarters two days after KENNEDY was killed Nov. 22, 1963.

"Replying to a state attack on the relevance of the notebook, GARRISON's formal answer said:

"While the state considers the other items relevant also, the address book is so connected with the issue that it would be an injustice to allow it to be returned, with the possibility that it might be destroyed forever."

"OSWALD's address book, from which GARRISON said the code was broken, is published in full in the Warren Commission report.

"GARRISON said SHAW's address book 'contains a unique address which exists also in the address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as printed in the Warren Commission exhibits (Volume XVI, Page 58).'

"The DA said the books contain the same Dallas post office box reference, 'P. O. Box 19106.' He filed photographs to support the assertion.

"SHAW's notebook, he added, carries a notation which is a 'reference to one LEE ODOM of Dallas, Texas.'

"What makes even more significant this interesting concurrence of address is the fact that in 1963 there existed no such post office box number in Dallas,' the GARRISON answer contends.

"When two parties each have precisely the same non-existent or fictional number,' the DA's answer continues, 'in their respective address books, the possibility of coincidence is removed because of the uniqueness of a selected none-istent number.

NO 89-69/emh

"The fact is that P. O. 19106 has been found to be a coded description of an unpublished phone number in Dallas, Tex., in 1963. The code involved is one which is used in OSWALD's notebook quite systematically, apparently for the purpose of concealing phone numbers he regarded as sensitive"

"The pleading goes on to indicate that the post office box number 'inevitably and unavoidable' produces the unpublished telephone number of RUBY during 1963.

"In the pleading, GARRISON said that with many five digit numbers found in OSWALD's notebook, the order of the letters A B C D E is transposed, for the purpose of coding, to A E B D C GARRISON said a reverse process is used in unscrambling.

"Referring to the prefix telephone exchange letters, the GARRISON papers declared:

"OSWALD invariably uses the dial of the telephone as conversion machinery to convert letters into numbers and back again. He systematically adds the number values resulting in a sum which can be later broken down into the real exchange listing."

"By using the telephone dial for conversion of letters to numbers, he explained, the letters 'P. O.' become the digit 13. The only exchange which the number 13 converts to in Dallas, he added, is Whitehall.

"The post office box number found in the SHAW and OSWALD address books, 19106, when unscrambled, becomes 1-6901, the DA continued. By subtracting 1300 from 1-6901, he added, the result is 1-5601.

"According to the GARRISON pleading, RUBY's unpublished telephone number at Dallas in 1963 was Whitehall 1-5601.

NO 89-69/emh

"Explaining the use of the number 1,300 for final conversion, the DA said OSWALD's code uses an invariable process which is 'always done the same way.'

"He said OSWALD used a standard outside number for the 'obvious purpose' of superficially changing the appearance of the digits.

"The two standard numbers used by OSWALD in coding numbers in his address book,' GARRISON said, 'are 4900 and 1300.'

"Observers noted that OSWALD lived in the 4900 block of Magazine when he was here in the summer of 1963. SHAW's home is in the 1300 block of Dauphine.

"In other action today, the state replied to a defense motion for a bill of particulars and prayer foroyer in the case of LAYTON PATRICK MARTENS, a one-time FERRIE roommate charged with perjury.

"MARTENS, a 24 year old college student, was indicted for allegedly lying in connection with the mysterious disappearance of munitions from a dump at Houma in 1961.

"Asst. DA RICHARD V. BURNES defended the rule of secrecy surrounding grand jury proceedings and said the defense was not entitled to a transcript of the complete grand jury hearing at which MARTENS is accused of lying.

"Meanwhile, Sen. RUSSELL B. LONG said yesterday he feels GARRISON has turned up 'significant evidence' of a conspiracy in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

"In answer to questions on CBS television's "Face the Nation" yesterday, LONG said an important new development in the case came Friday when GARRISON reported that JACK RUBY's unlisted telephone number, in coded form, had been found in notebooks owned by CLAY L. SHAW and accused presidential assassin LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

"GARRISON seized SHAW's notebook and other personal effects in February, after he arrested the 54 year old former manager of the International Trade Mart on a charge of conspiring to assassinate KENNEDY.

"Since that time SHAW has been bound over for trial after a three-judge hearing, then indicted for conspiracy by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury.

"LONG said yesterday that in his mind the alleged telephone number is definite evidence that a conspiracy existed. The Warren Commission was able to establish no link between OSWALD and JACK RUBY, the late Dallas club owner who shot him to death.

"GARRISON said Friday he plans, at some future date, to disclose other significant coded entries in OSWALD's notebook, printed in its entirety in the Warren Report.

"The code, GARRISON explained, involves transposition of digits according to a definite pattern; then addition or subtraction of numbers familiar to OSWALD.

"On the broadcast from Washington yesterday, LONG commented, "I think you would say it was somewhat strange that those two men whom GARRISON says were in conspiracy both had that number listed in their papers."

"SALVADOR PANZECA, one of SHAW's attorneys, said today that the figure PA 19106 in LEE HARVEY OSWALD's address book represented a telephone number in Russia.

NO 89-69/emh

"He said SHAW's attorneys will prove this and will also bring LEE ODOM into court either on or before SHAW's trial date. He said the numbers, although the same, had no relation to each other.

"So far, investigation in Dallas has turned up no evidence of a LEE ODOM, whose name was listed in SHAW's address book with the notation PO 19106, Dallas, Tex.

"Meanwhile, LAVIN BEAUBOEUF was scheduled to appear this afternoon at police headquarters to sign a statement regarding an alleged GARRISON office attempt to bribe him.

"LONG expressed long-standing doubts that OSWALD had carried out the assassination alone and said he feels that although GARRISON should seek the cooperation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in his probe, he is justified in conducting an independent investigation.

"The murder of KENNEDY, LONG contended, 'was not a crime against federal law. It was a crime against the law of Louisiana. It was a crime against the law of Texas.'

"'Do you really think,' one reporter asked LONG, apparently half-jokingly, 'that the New Orleans district attorney is capable of conducting a more thorough investigation than the FBI?'

The senator replied, 'I'm just saying they wouldn't have handled it the way he has handled it . . . Furthermore, let's be fair about it. He felt it was his case and not theirs.'

"'Do you really think RUBY, OSWALD and SHAW were involved in a conspiracy?' an interviewer queried.

"'I'm sure there was a conspiracy,' LONG answered, adding that interest in GARRISON's investigation has been high for some time."

The article noted that District Attorney JAMES GARRISON had previously said that the number was a code form for JACK RUBY's 1963 unlisted telephone number in Dallas and that the same figure exists in SHAW's seized address book.

The article stated that the figure in SHAW's book was listed to LEE ODOM of Dallas, Texas, whom SHAW said he met in 1965.

SHAW's defense attorney, SALVADOR PANZECA, according to the article, stated the defense will prove that the listing by OSWALD was a Russian phone number and will bring ODOM into court.

"Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison said today that he is well aware of the existence of a person by the name of Lee Odom, the man whose name appeared with the address P. O. Box 19106, Dallas, Tex., in Clay Shaw's address book.

"Garrison said Friday that the same P. O. number also appeared in the note book of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald and that the two numbers, decoded, were the unpublished 1963 telephone number of Jack Ruby, the man who shot Oswald.

"Odom was found in a Dallas suburb and interviewed. He confirmed Clay Shaw's story that he and Odom had known each other only briefly in 1966.

"Garrison issued the following statement:

"We are well aware that there is a Mr. Lee Odom. As a matter of fact, he lives in Irving, Texas, just outside of Dallas. This is the suburb in which Ruth Paine and Marina Oswald lived while Lee Oswald was working at the book depository in Dallas. Mr. Odom's post office box number there now is P. O. 174.

"The fact that there is a real Lee Odom, however, is not the point. The point is that Clay Shaw and Lee Oswald have the same post office box number in their address books and this is in coded form, the unpublished phone number of Jack Ruby in 1963. The fact that someone acquired the post office box when it came into existence in late 1965 does not change the oddity of that circumstance at all.

"We are very interested in knowing who introduced Mr. Odom to Mr. Shaw, how many bullfights Mr. Odom has actually produced and a few other things. We are particularly interested in clarifying now why there is also coded in Lee Oswald's address book the local phone number of the Central Intelligence Agency.

"We have had evidence for some time that in Dallas, Tex., Jack Ruby was working for the CIA

NO 89-69

"at the same time Lee Oswald was working for the CIA here.

"This means that the CIA well knew that these two men knew each other. We also have evidence that Lee Oswald was not the only man in Dealy Plaza who was an employe of the CIA and now we have found the phone number of the CIA in the front of Lee Oswald's address book.

"Since it is obvious that it is no longer possible to get the truth in any form from officials of the CIA agency in Washington, no matter how highly placed, we are looking forward to talking to this businessman from Irving, Tex.; about some of these coincidences."

"Lee Odom, very much a real person, said today he gave Clay L. Shaw his Dallas address--P.O. Box 19160--when he was in New Orleans last year trying to promote a bullfight.

"Odom's name and box number were found in Shaw's address book by Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who said Friday that the number 19160 was part of an ingenious code linking Lee Harvey Oswald and Shaw with Jack Ruby.

"I asked the manager of the Roosevelt Hotel about who would be a good man to see about finding a place for my bullfight' Odom said in an interview.

"He suggested Mr. Shaw, so I called him--or the manager called him, I don't remember exactly.

"He (Shaw) came over to the hotel and we talked for 15 or 20 minutes. He gave me his business card--I bet I still have it around here somewhere--and I gave my address in Dallas.

"The bullfight didn't come off and we never communicated again--that's all there was to it," Odom said.

/cs

"Garrison said Friday that the same number appeared in Oswald's notebook and that he had worked out a code used by Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy. The code, Garrison said, revealed that P.O. 19160 was actually the unlisted number of Ruby, the man who shot Oswald and later died himself of cancer.

"Odom said he could explain how his name and address got into Shaw's address book. 'As I said, I gave it to him. That was my post office box at the time-- 19160. I rented it, or my wife did for me, in the summer of 1966.'

"The box, located in the Medical Center Postal Substation in Dallas, was rented in the name of a barbecue company the L. & R. Barbecue Co., he was running at the time, Odom said. 'I used this address--P.O. 19160--for the barbecue and the promotion business.'

"The box was kept until October or November as Odom recalls it a total of three or four months.

"Garrison says the numbers PO 19160 also appeared in Oswald's notebook.

"Oswald was killed in 1963. Dallas postal authorities have said the box number there did not come into being until 1965.

NO 89-69/mwb

"During the course of the interview, ODOM said that he did not know anything about anyone connected with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

"We now have another box out here at the post office," here being the Dallas County suburb in which ODOM now lives with his wife and two children.

"For reasons of privacy, ODOM asked that the city not be named. ODOM said that he was not aware that anyone was interested in talking to him until he was located yesterday for the interview.

"I didn't have a chance to read a newspaper over the weekend," said ODOM, a tall, rangy man born in Lakeview, Tex., 31 years ago.

"He said he would be willing to tell his story to GARRISON or anyone else. 'I have nothing to hide--my goodness,' he said. 'You could tell Mr. SHAW I am ready to help him if I can.'

"ODOM also said he feels sure that his story of the trip to New Orleans and his brief meeting with SHAW can be corroborated. 'The man at the Roosevelt might remember it all. The records of the hotel should show I was there, too.'

"As he remembered it, ODOM was in New Orleans for 'two or three days' in the latter part of November, 1966. With a reporter present, ODOM rummaged through some of his personal papers in his apartment and came up with the stub of his airplane ticket he used to return to Dallas from New Orleans Nov. 22, 1966.

"I never throw anything away and I'll bet I'll eventually find Mr. SHAW's business card somewhere," ODOM said.

"ODOM says he does not recall any of the specific things said during their brief discussion. 'I was trying to find a place for the bullfight and he said he might help me--something like that,' he said.

"But the bullfight did not come off, so that was it. That was the only time I've ever talked with Mr. SHAW or had any contact with him whatsoever. Asked to describe the man he talked to in New Orleans, Odom said he was 'very tall and big, about 50,' and pointed out other characteristics descriptive of SHAW.

"ODOM had lived in Dallas proper until a month ago in an apartment complex. He and his family were living with his sister and brother-in-law there and he worked with a shoestore.

"They now live in a multiunit apartment complex in the suburban city near Dallas."

"This is in direct contradiction to FERRIE's statements before his death that he did not know OSWALD.

"GARRISON'S investigators were told by a New Orleans area law officer that he was making a routine check on Breakwater dr. at the lakefront in the early morning hours in the fall of 1963 when he found two men sitting in a parked car.

"One of the men identified himself as OSWALD, the officer said. The States-Item's informant was not clear on how the other man identified himself. But the officer has since identified FERRIE's body positively as that of the man he saw in the car.

"The officer took the pair to his headquarters where his superior declined to arrest them on the grounds there was insufficient evidence they were guilty of any wrongdoing.

"After the assassination, the officer said, he recognized OSWALD's face and name from the pictures when he was accused of killing the President. He said he took no action because it was well-known that OSWALD had lived in New Orleans.

"Last week, when FERRIE's name was prominently linked to the probe, the officer gave the DA's office his information.

FERRIE, who was found dead Feb. 21, has been called by GARRISON as a key figure in his investigation of a possible conspiracy in the slaying of the President.

PERRY RAYMOND RUSSO, a former friend of DAVID FERRIE, testified he had been present in FERRIE's apartment in September, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD, FERRIE and others discussed the assassination conspiracy. RUSSO, under cross examination, was unable to provide much information that he should have possessed if he had actually witnessed these activities. To buttress RUSSO's testimony, GARRISON produced a 27 year old Negro, VERNON BUDNY, a narcotics addict beginning at age 13, who was then in the Orleans Parish Prison. BUNDY testified he observed SHAW give money to OSWALD.

PERRY RUSSO stated he had offered aid to GARRISON only after FERRIE had died. RUSSO was initially interviewed by Assistant District Attorney ANDREW J. SCIAMBRA on February 25, 1967, which was two days after GARRISON had "solved" the case.

[REDACTED] learned that SCIAMBRA wrote up the interview of RUSSO in a 3,500 work memorandum to GARRISON. [REDACTED] has stated that GARRISON let him read this memorandum and nothing in it made any mention about a party, plot or a "BERTRAND," a name RUSSO later stated was used by CLAY SHAW. In this memorandum, RUSSO reportedly stated he had seen CLAY SHAW only twice, once while attending a New Orleans speech delivered by President KENNEDY and once in an automobile with FERRIE. When challenged by [REDACTED] SCIAMBRA claimed he must have simply forgotten to include the crucial details of the conspiracy session in his report.

[REDACTED] stated information available to him indicated that it was only after "repeated prodding" while under hypnosis and the influence of a so-called "truth serum" that RUSSO had been able to recall the meeting in FERRIE's apartment.

By Whom: Dr. CARLOS BRINGUIER

Dr. CARLOS BRINGUIER, in his letter, said around the end of January, 1967, agent VOLZ, from the District Attorney's Office, visited me at my store and was asking me questions in regard to my testimony to the Warren Commission. He was particularly interested in what I could know in regard to Mr. SERGIO ARCHACHA SMITH, former Delegate of the Cuban Revolutionary Council in New Orleans.

Dr. BRINGUIER next relates in detail of his being questioned in the District Attorney's Office by GARRISON's investigators.

"They were particularly interested in Mr. SERGIO ARCHACHA SMITH and Mr. RICARDO DAVIS. They were trying to implicate me in a training camp that RICARDO DAVIS had across Lake Pontchartrain in the Summer of 1963, and in which training camp they assured me that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was seen."

Dr. BRINGUIER's letter continues:

"On February 14, 1967, I arrived at Mr. GARRISON's Office.... Minutes later, Mr. GARRISON started to outline his case to me. JIM GARRISON stated, plain and cool, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not a Communist, but instead OSWALD according to GARRISON, was really an anti-Communist... OSWALD was brought to New Orleans by Conservatives.... Immediately afterwards, Mr. GARRISON asked me if I knew a 'CLAY BERTRAND: "'

Questions asked of BRINGUIER during lie detector test: 1.) If I, BRINGUIER, knew if ARCACHA and OSWALD had met; 2.) If I knew if DAVIS and OSWALD had met; 3.) If I knew if CARLOS QUIROGA and OSWALD had met; 4.) If I had met with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in any other occasion that those stated by me to the Warren Commission.

BRINGUIER continues in his letter:

"On March 9, 1967, an investigator from District Attorney JAMES GARRISON's Office showed to CARLOS QUIROGA a picture of FERRIE with another person, which person Mr. QUIROGA identified as JULIAN BUZNEDO, a Cuban who had been in New Orleans in early 1962, and who is a veteran of the Bay of Pigs invasion."

CARLOS QUIROGA stated District Attorney JAMES GARRISON asked him what he knew about the camp across Lake Pontchartrain. He stated District Attorney GARRISON asked what he knew about GAY BANNISTER, and if he knew that OSWALD used to visit GAY BANNISTER's Office. Then, District Attorney GARRISON stated, suppose he told me that OSWALD was not a Communist but an anti-Communist? District Attorney GARRISON accused QUIROGA of being with OSWALD, FERRIE and ARCHACHA SMITH at Mancuso's Restaurant at Camp and Lafayette Streets. District Attorney GARRISON said there were some witnesses who recognized QUIROGA today as being in the restaurant. QUIROGA said District Attorney GARRISON took his open letter to the President and said, "When I am finished with this investigation, I am going to clean my (obscene) with this,"

QUIROGA stated District Attorney JAMES GARRISON then accused him of being at the camp too. District Attorney GARRISON then said he had better tell the truth because he was going to accuse him, QUIROGA, and bring him before the Grand Jury.

QUIROGA stated that the next day, District Attorney JAMES GARRISON stated JACK MARTIN was the one who threatened QUIROGA on the phone as the word had leaked out to MARTIN that QUIROGA had gone to the District Attorney's Office. QUIROGA advised that District Attorney GARRISON stated he believed QUIROGA.

QUIROGA said District Attorney GARRISON's thesis was as follows:

NO 89-69/cst

LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been brought to New Orleans by Anti-Communist who owns a coffee industry here. OSWALD was really not a Communist, but an anti-Communist. His actions on Canal Street and his Communist activities were really a front for OSWALD in order that OSWALD could get into Cuba as a Communist and kill FIDEL CASTRO. OSWALD was being backed by a group of anti-Communist Americans who, according to Mr. GARRISON, were Conservatives who belonged to an organization called "The Guardian of the Caribbean."

He then went on to explain that after the plan to kill CASTRO failed, they decided to kill President KENNEDY. He also told me that one of the persons who was in the photograph with OSWALD the day he was distributing the Communist propaganda was a Cuban by the name MANUEL GARCIA GONZALES. He then told me that this Cuban was definitely implicated because there are pictures of this man and other Cubans behind a "billboard" close to where the late President was shot. He also told the names of two other anti-Communist Americans, that I knew, that he said were definitely implicated.

The New Orleans States-Item, Red Flash Edition, May 25, 1967, reported that an affidavit filed with new extradition papers sent to Columbus, Ohio, claims that GORDON NOVEL admitted his part in a burglary of a munitions bunker in Houma in 1961. According to the article, Assistant District Attorney JAMES L. ALCOCK said in the affidavit that GORDON NOVEL responded to questioning by District Attorney JAMES GARRISON and Investigative Aide WILLIAM GURVICH that he and the parties named therein did in fact commit the conspiracy and burglary outlined above.

The affidavit declared that GORDON NOVEL, SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH, DAVID W. FERRIE and other unnamed persons "did conspire, agree and combine" to burglarize a munitions bunker located in Houma, Louisiana. The conspiracy was entered into at the home of ARCACHA in New Orleans.

In the affidavit ALCOCK said the men went to Houma on or about August 21, 1961, in a Lincoln automobile owned and driven by GORDON DWANE NOVEL and in a panel truck. After arriving at the site of the bunker, which was leased by Schlumberger Well Services Company, GORDON NOVEL, SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH, DAVID W. FERRIE and others unnamed unlawfully entered the bunker by cutting the lock with a pair of bolt cutters which had been brought along for that purpose.

The article continued that after entering the bunker, these men took various forms of explosives and munitions and thereafter returned to New Orleans with the stolen munitions.

The article reported that the documents submitted to the Governor of Ohio also contained a copy of the simple burglary charge against GORDON DWANE NOVEL and SERGIO ARCACHA SMITH by the Sheriff of Terrebonne Parish.

To Whom: The New Orleans FBI Office

LAYTON PATRICK MARTENS, a student at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, residence address 404 South Wakefield Drive, Lafayette, Louisiana, whose New Orleans address is 3622 Constance Street, advised he had been subpoenaed to testify before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury on Wednesday, March 29, 1967, in connection with District Attorney JAMES GARRISON's investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MARTENS stated that from information in his possession it appears that District Attorney GARRISON is going to attempt to embarrass President JOHNSON and also to bring Senator ROBERT KENNEDY's name into his investigation. MARTENS stated that GARRISON has no cause to go in the direction in which he has gone with his investigation in regard to CLAY SHAW, DAVID FERRIE, and PERRY RUSSO.

MARTENS said that the inference is that District Attorney GARRISON is going to involve ARCACHA SMITH into the assassination of President KENNEDY as the second trigger man. MARTENS advised that GARRISON was attempting to identify ARCACHA SMITH with the assassination plot through ARCACHA SMITH's association with FERRIE, through the Cuban Revolutionary Front (FRD), and through him (MARTENS). MARTENS related that he was an authorized representative of the Provisional Government of Cuba in New Orleans in 1961 and in this capacity had solicited funds for the organization from various citizens and businessmen. He stated that he had carried an identification card showing his affiliation with the organization for identification purposes. He stated that Senator ROBERT KENNEDY had approved this activity and he feels GARRISON may bring Senator KENNEDY's name into the assassination investigation in this manner.

MARTENS informed he was interviewed by GARRISON shortly before Christmas, 1966, and was told that at the time of the assassination the District Attorney's office had developed information concerning FERRIE, but that the FBI had stepped in and conducted investigation and the state file had never been closed. MARTENS said he was informed the District Attorney's office desired statements from everyone so that the state file could be closed. MARTENS stated he was questioned about DAVID FERRIE, the Cuban Revolutionary Front, about himself, the identities of any additional individuals who accompanied FERRIE to Texas on the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, and the reason for FERRIE's trip to Texas. MARTENS stated he took a polygraph examination while at District Attorney GARRISON's office, which was positive in his favor.

MARTENS advised that approximately two weeks ago an unrecalled representative of GARRISON's office telephonically contacted him in Lafayette, Louisiana, asking him to report to the District Attorney's office for further questioning. MARTENS said he appeared at District Attorney GARRISON's office with his attorney, MILTON BRENER. MARTENS stated that Assistant District Attorneys ALCOCK and OSER went over practically the same ground covered on his prior interview but at this time also included questions concerning CLAY SHAW. MARTENS said he knows CLAY SHAW, whom he considers as an acquaintance. MARTENS stated that he has played chess with SHAW on several occasions. MARTENS said he told the representatives of GARRISON's office that CLAY SHAW and DAVID FERRIE were not associates and he doubts seriously if they knew one another.

MARTENS also commented that District Attorney GARRISON considers him to be the fourth ranking man in the Provisional Government of Cuba under ARCAHA SMITH. He also said that from information from various news representatives GARRISON is "pushing" to get the Central Intelligence Agency involved in the conspiracy to assassinate President KENNEDY.

After claiming that accused presidential assassin LEE HARVEY OSWALD was actually associated closely with anti-CASTRO elements in New Orleans, District Attorney JIM GARRISON Monday had a grand jury subpoena issued for CARLOS QUIROGA, a former anti-CASTRO leader.

This move followed GARRISON's announcement Sunday night that he will seek a Senate investigation of what he called a Central Intelligence Agency cover-up of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's assassination.

GARRISON pegged OSWALD as a revolutionary working closely with anti-CASTRO organizations in New Orleans and Dallas rather than as a Communist. He claimed a Communist cover was used to mask his true activities.

GARRISON termed a recent New Orleans States-Item story concerning OSWALD and the CIA in New Orleans "essentially correct."

"OSWALD's Fair Play for Cuba actions in New Orleans constituted a transparent sham. These actions were designed as a cover, while he was in fact engaged in no Communist activity whatsoever.

"His associations here were exclusively--not merely frequently, but exclusively--with persons whose orientation was anti-CASTRO, all of whom were plainly connected with federal agencies here."

GARRISON said federal agents in New Orleans "would necessarily know the fact that OSWALD was employing a cover in his Fair Play for Cuba activities, and he would know well the true nature of his role here.

District Attorney JAMES GARRISON said today "a group of Anti-Castro adventurers operating as a precision guerrilla team assassinated president JOHN F. KENNEDY. There is no question at all about the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not fire a shot there."

"The President was killed by a fatal bullet that was fired from the front", "That was not the only times he was hit from in front. There was a crossfire situation set up, which involved at least two pairs of men in the front - apparently two men behind the stone wall and two behind the picket fence, which is a little bit in back of the stone wall. The role of the second man in each case was to pick up the actual cartridges, taken on the bounce, so to speak, so that the cartridges could be disposed of as quickly as the guns, which were apparently tossed in the back of cars. There were cars parked immediately behind. In addition to those men in front, they had at least one man in the back who was shooting, although it is becoming increasingly apparent that he was not shooting from the sixth floor of the book depository."

"We have located one other person who was involved in the operation. He was one of the adventurers who was involved in the anti-Castro activities, who was not using a gun, but who was engaged in a row in Dealey Plaza in order to aid those who had guns. You had in effect a group of men operating as a guerrilla team. It was a precision operation, and was carried out very coolly and with a lot of coordination. It appears they used frangible bullets. They are forbidden by the Geneva treaty, but are the kind of bullets that are quite often used-or would be used for an assassination project by intelligence forces or forces employed by an intelligence agency,"

According to the article in referring to the bullet found at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, District Attorney GARRISON said "It was discovered on one of the cots at the hospital."

The article reported that JAMES GARRISON described the men he said killed KENNEDY as "Cuban Adventurers" and that all were not necessarily Cuban in Nationality, but that they were all Anti-Castro oriented and had been engaged in Anti-Castro training.
