The district attorney's office today issued a subpena for an international petroleum engineer and consultant wanted for questioning in the Kenledy death plot invections

Asst. Dist. Atty. James L. lcock said the summons to ppear at DA Jim Garrison's fice was issued for William elzell, who was described a petroleum adviser to the thiopian government.

DALZELL WAS believed isiting the city when the subna was signed. It was dicted to Dalzell at the Rooseelt Hotel.

Alcock said the summons rdered Dalzell to appear at it DA's office at 1 p. m. Histolel room was staked out by arrison investigators, but it subpens had not been erved at 2 p. m. today.

A sheriff's deputy was sent the law office of Steven lockin after the DA's office as told that Dalzell might e there.

Plotkin is the attorney for ordon Novel, a 29-year-old ormer New Orleans bar owned is a fugitive witness om Garrison's investigation.

Sources in the district attorney's office said Dalzell was an incorporator in early 1961 of a militant anti-Castro organization here, the Friends of Democratic Cuba.

The organization was later merged into other anti-Castro Cuban groups, informed sources said.

LISTED AS incorporators of the group along with Dalzell were the late Guy Banister, a former Federal Bureau of Investigation official and one-time assistant superintendent of New Orleans police; Grady C. Durham, a former New Orleans attorney, and William Klein, brother of an attorney representing one of the figures in the Garrison investigation.

Banister, who operated a private detective agency here until his death in June 1964, has been described as a key man in anti-Castro Cuban operations here during 1961, 1962 and 1963.

The DA's office would not say what line of questioning might be pursued with Dalzell
