NOTE:

Philadelphia received a letter from Mr. E. Z. Dimitman, Administrative Assistant to the Publisher of the "The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia newspaper which enclosed an envelope and a name card that had been received by the newspaper. The envelope was postmarked Norfolk, Virginia, 7/6/67 and a return address of 22 West 55th Street, New York City, and the envelope contained a calling card with "The Fund for America" printed on one side and a handwritten message on the other side, "who did Jack Ruby call on long distance on November 22 - 23, 1963?" This card has been furnished to Dallas.

Bureau files did not identify "The Fund for America" and Bureau file 62-0-60913 contained a non-specific complaint from a deputy Sheriff in Santa Barbara during June, 1961, that he had overheard two unidentified individuals referring to either "The Fund for America" or "Fund for the Republic" which according to these unidentified persons, the spokesman for the group speaks in favor of Russia and against the United States. It could not be determined whether this group is identical with "The Fund for America" referred to on the postcard.
