ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
DALLAS, TEXAS

[redacted], Attorney, Enterprise Building, Tulsa, Oklahoma, advised on January 8, 1968, he recently received information from a female client who he declined to identify which pertained to the Garrison investigation at New Orleans, Louisiana.

Eugene Bradley, recently arrested in California on an indictment growing out of Garrison investigation, visited [redacted] client in Tulsa, Oklahoma, two days before the assassination of President Kennedy. She spent the two days with Bradley and on one occasion they went to Bradley's hotel room to check his luggage after he complained of thefts therefrom. As he checked his suitcase, the client noticed some guns and numerous papers; thereafter, Bradley spent the night with the client at her residence and left Tulsa the next day. The client noted her contacts with Bradley in a diary which she now has turned over to [redacted] for safe keeping. After the assassination, the client received a letter from Bradley in which he stated Romney and Nixon were out to take over the country. He also stated in the letter, "I know Oswald did not assassinate Kennedy alone." The client retained and recently turned over this letter to [redacted]. She has instructed [redacted] not to release the above mentioned diary or letter to anyone.

Shortly after his recent arrest, Bradley contacted [redacted] client and asked her to sign an affidavit that Bradley was in Tulsa with her at the time of the assassination. She declined to do so because her diary shows Bradley's visit to Tulsa preceded the assassination.

ENCLOSURE

File
3/15/68

██████████ said he did not intend to furnish any information to Garrison nor did he intend to contact him. He said he was dubious of the entire Garrison investigation and felt the FBI was the only agency having proper jurisdiction to make an investigation of the assassination of the President. For this reason, he felt an obligation to furnish the information to the FBI.

██████████ declined to furnish copies of the materials in his possession. He said he would make his client available for interview by Agents of the Bureau; however, he insisted her identity would not be revealed to the Agents.

The Tulsa Tribune of January 9, 1968, carried an article concerning this matter in which Roehm West is quoted in the same vein as set out above.
