SHAW MOTION ______A 9 a. m. Thursday, the Or-leans Parish Grand Jury will meet and resume its role in District Attorney Jim Garri-son's probe of the Kennedy as-sasination. It is uncertain who will testify. Lawrence Howard F., an un-employed welder of El Monte, Calif., lett Los Angeles Satur-day for New Orleans to testify, motion to transfer the trial of Clay L. Shaw away from New Orleans, stating that he can get a fair trial M the city. Criminal District Judge Ed-ward A. Haggerty Jr. set March 5 as the date for a hearing on the change of venue motion after status L. Akock and Richard V. Burnes filed an 'answer to Shaw's change of venue motion During the March 5 hearing, Shaw's attorneys will call a list of witnesses, which is expected to be filed Wednesday. It was charged in the motion filed by Alcock and Burnes that allegations ciled in seeking a change of venue are "totally irrelevant and unrelated to any valid reason for a change of venue."

The S4-year-old Shaw is under indictment for conspiracy in the slaying of President John F. Kennedy.

None of the grounds cited for a change of venue in the Louisiana Criminal Code exist in the case of Shaw, the answer filed by district attorney claimed.

A ruling otherwise would mean that there are not "12 fair and impartial jurors in the thousands that make up the venire," the motion read. "Jodge Haggerly Indicated
