SET ON JUNE

OF SHAV

Relief in U.S. Court The district attorney's office go to trial on this date. The in an unexpected move Wednes-state is ready for trial and will day set a June 11 trial date for Clay L. Shaw, who is charged with conspiracy in the death of the district attorney of the death of the de with conspiracy in the death of President John F. Kennedy.

Assistant district attorney James L. Alcock made the announcement one day after Shaw's attorneys announced their intention to seek relief in the federal courts,

In his statement Alcock said that Shaw's attorneys have exhausted pre-trial actions and toal federal courts have no jurisdiction over the matter.

Asked for his reaction to the date-setting, F. Irvin Dymond, one of Shaw's attorneys, said, "Well, that's their prerogative."

Dymond gave no estimate as to when the trial may actually begin. "As we said and it will depend on the out- lary for further delay." come of that," he said.

He also said that pleadings in federal court will - open meniserves.

Alcock's statement follows: Now that Mr. - Snaw's de fense attorneys have exhausted their pre-trial actions the law SET UN JUNE II permits the state to set the case for trial. Today we have set the trial for Clay Shaw for June But Defense Still to Seek 11, 1968. The trial of this case stated that they intend to try to carry their pre-trial proceedings into federal court. Inasmuch as the federal courts have about as much jurisdiction overthis case as the courts of England or of India, we see no basis for any additional delays of the trial on this account.

"Of course, there have been instances recently where the federal courts have assumed jurisdiction where, in our judgement, no basis for jurisdiction has existed. However, in view of the extensive efforts of the federal government to in-terfere with and obstruct our investigation of President Kennedy's assassination I am sure that no federal judge will allow yesterday, we are going to that no federal judge will allow seek relief in federal court this court to be used as a conctu-
