Subpena for

The United States attorney's office in Washington, D. C., has refused to serve a New Orleans subpena on former Central Intelligence Agency chief Allen W. Dulles, an aide to District Attorney

Jim Garrison said today.

Assistant DA James L. Alcock said efforts to serve a grand jury subpena on Dulles to testify in Garrison's probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy have been thwarted.

DULLES REPORTEDLY told newsmen in Washington today that he has not been served, despite Garrison's announcement. Feb. 16 that a subpena was being issued for a District of Columbia resident.

Alcock said today this was true. He said the proper procedure under the Uniform Act to Secure Witnesses in criminal proceedings is to send the subpera to the proper authorities in the jurisdiction concerned. They serve it, and the person subpenaed is required to go to court fhere and show cause why he should not be required to answer the subpena.

Office checked with the U.S. attorney's office here and was told that the proper person in Washington is U.S. Atterney David G. Bress, Alcock said.

HE SAID BRESS was mailed the legal papers, plus a check for $239.88 for Dulles' travel expenses.

Alcock said that on March 13, he received a reply from Bress saying, "We decline to represent you in this matter. Accordingly, we are returning the documents and the check, so you can pursue the matter yourself or arrange for other counsel."

This leaves the DA's office with no further legal recourse, Alcock said.

THIS LEFT in doubt the disposition of another subpena issued May 9, in which Garrison asked the U.S. archivist Dr. Robert H. Bahmer to produce the top secret photos and X-rays taken during the autopsy on the body of President Kennedy the day he was assassinated.

The Bahmer subpens also model go to the District of Columbia jurisdiction.
