Conspiracy to Linuage Alleged in Bill

Nearly 10 months after the arrest of Clay L. Shaw on a charge of conspiring to murder President John F. Rennedy the district attorney's office charged a man identified only as tEd-Sar Eugene Bradley with the same crime.

The charge, carrying a rec-emutatied band of $10,000, was filed shortly before 4 p. m.! Wednesday in Criminal District Court be Assistant District At-torney James L. Alegek, who was accompanied by Assistant DA Richard V. Buenes, Asthol. H. the model and

DA filehard V. Burnes. Asked II he would say whether Bradley is in New Orleans, Alcock replicit, We know where Le is, He is not in New Orleans and he is not from New Orleans," Alcock also refused to discuss Brad-lev's heckground on to disc ley's background or to give any further Cotalls on the suspect. When asked if the DA's of-
