ing, Judge, Hearerty noted he had eight potential jurors left over from yesterday's pro-ceedings and ordered 12 more names drawn from the box. All the rest of the venire was excused until this afternoon.

FEWER PERSONS were in the courthouse corridor this morning and anyone with an official pass was admitted to the courtroom. Yesterday, only a few were admitted because the space was taken up by potential jurors. The two jurors sworn in yesterday sat in the jury box through this morning's proceedings. They had been locked up overvight and will be ! tion. until the trial is over.

The first three potential furors to come up this morning crickly were disqualified when they told the judge they alrady had fixed opinions in the case.

THE STATE questioned Fartin at some length and yesterday are: t'en tendered him to the defrase. Under questioning by D-mond, Martin said he always has held the opinion that Kennedy was shot by only one man.

Assistant DA Alvin V. Oser asked Martin:

"Do you think President Kennedy was shot by con-spirators or one man acting alone?"

Blartin: "I think he was shot by one man."

Oser: "How long have you had this opinion?"

Marile: "Since he was shot."

Oser: "It's still your opin-ion he was shot by one man?" Martis: "That's my opinfon."

Oser: "What would it take for the state to prove a conspiracy?"

Martin: "They would have to show more than one man did the shooting."

Oser then used a peremptory challenge to reject Marfin

The high point of yosterday afternoon's session came when Dymond told Mason, "Clay L. Shaw will take the witness stand in his own behalf. Will you give him the same consideration as other wit-Desses?"

Mason replied "Yes." It was the first indication that the retired businessman would testily. A defendant has the option of testifying or remaining silent.

IN QUESTIONING Jurors, Alcock explained that the state must establish that a conspiracy existed and then prove an overt act was committed in furtherance of the The two jurors agreed upon object of the conspiracy.
