has been interviewed in the past and has greeted the agents with the words "I'm the Chief and you know it". She said that former President JOHN F. KENNEDY had made her "Chief" and that Mr. HOOVER had agreed that she should he "Chief". She reported that she was made "Chief" for the made her "Chief" and that mr. nouven had agreed that she should be "Chief". She reported that she was made "Chief" for the purpose of investigating a "master spy ring" which is responsible for the "wiretapping fraud" against the Bell Telephone Company. She said she is to remain "Chief" until the case is brought to a successful conclusion. During the interview she spoke incoherently and made very little sense. Although with difficulty she was admonished and told never again to refer to herself as being associated with the FBI in any manner. As the agents departed she said "It is always good to see my men". walk a straight was the straight with the straight and the

In addition to the above letter, has either telephoned or written to the Charleston, West Virginia, Resident Agency, the Honolulu Office, the Miami Office, and the Boston Office identifying herself as Chief of the FBI and discussing various topics. All conversations and communications were incoherent and were apparently written by a mentally disturbed person. and the state of t

From the review of the above items it appears that is a person with a serious mental problem, who has been admonished in the past for identifying herself as FBI Chief with little results.
