

As I recall, further evidence showing that Hosty did not know Oswald or Oswald know Hosty, on the afternoon after the assassination Hosty went to the Police Department and was introduced as being Hosty of the FBI. Oswald is supposed to have said, "Oh, so you are Hosty."

I desire to make this observation -- while I am certain we would have included his visit to the office under our attempting to show his almost hourly activities during the period before the assassination the real threat here seems to have been made against Agent Hosty and allegedly the letter was the same. There would have been no dissemination or need to disseminate this information to Secret Service or the Dallas Police Department because it would appear to be strictly a threatened assault against an Agent which matter would ordinarily have been opened and presented to the appropriate U. S. Attorney.
