

Dear Sir,

At the end of last year I gave Mr. Kelley, the Director of the FBI, a letter from Lee Oswald. To my understanding he could have brought out the circumstances to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Since Mr. Kelley hasn't responded to that letter, I've got the right to believe something bad might happen to me, and that is why I see myself obligated to to keep myself away for a short time.

Convinced of the importance of that letter mentioned and knowing that you have been doing some investigation independently of the assassination, I'm sending you a copy of the same letter.

P.S.
