RICHARD HAROLD LESTER, 1440 Hansboro, Dallas, Texas, made the following statements upon receipt of the bullet fragment contained in a small rectangular box; one small clear plastic box containing metal fragments and one small round clear plastic box containing what appeared to be minute metal particles:

Mr. LESTER was visibly upset over the condition of the bullet fragment. He stated that the FBI destroyed the bullet and that he gave no one permission to damage the bullet fragment. He stated that by visibly examining the bullet fragment that he cannot tell that the bullet fragment returned to him is the same bullet fragment that he furnished the FBI. He stated that he will sue, even if he has to sell his house to pay for a lawyer.
