TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: December 26, 1963

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION
ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

On December 5, 1963, at the request of Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, for the President's Commission, typewritten copies of the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald, which was contained in exhibits of the Bureau's report in this case, were furnished to the Commission. These typewritten copies were requested in order that the material could be read more easily by the Commission members.

Copies of the material furnished to the Commission are being attached for Bureau officials who have previously received one or more copies of the Bureau's report in this matter. It is suggested that the material be included in the exhibits section of the report for ready reference. The numbers appearing on the material represent the exhibit number to which the particular material relates.

The second copy of the attached material designated for Assistant Director Sullivan is to be furnished through liaison to Secret Service which has previously received a copy of the FBI report in this matter.
