JUDGE DANIELS TELLS OF PLAN

Change in Partin's Testimony Sought, Claim

A Baton Rouge city judge testified there were numerous efforts to get him to influence Edward Grady Partin, a Baton Rouge Teamsters Union official, to change Partin's federal court statements that were instrumental in convicting Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

Judge William Hawk Daniels' testimony was in a transcript filed Monday in the Louisiana Supreme Court of a closed hearing conducted by commissioner Michael M. Arwin in the state's suit to remove Judge Malcolm V. O'Hara from office.

Daniels said those involved in a plan to change Partin's testimony included but were not limited to Pete Rotolo, contractor Wilson Abraham and James H. "Buddy" Gill, all of Baton Rouge, New Orleans attorney G. Wray Gill and Miami attorney Frank Ragano.

Criminal District Judge O'Hara is being sued for alleged improper attempts to gather evidence to overturn federal court convictions of Hoffa and Zachary A. Strate Jr., former New Orleans builder now living in N. Miami Beach.

WIRE TAPPING

Much of the testimony centered on the presentation of an affidavit by Judge O'Hara to Partin in a Baton Rouge meeting. That affidavit stated Partin had knowledge of wire tapping by the government in the Chattanooga federal trial, a basis for overturning the convictions, but Partin refused to sign it.

Daniels said in the transcript he did not know O'Hara. Whenever it was suggested he try to change Partin's testimony, he said, there was always the suggestion it would be worth Partin's while and Daniels' job.

O'Hara testified he never had any business dealings with Strate, whom he said he met after Strate's 1964 federal conviction.

Early in 1967, the judge said, Strate asked if he knew anybody in Baton Rouge who knew Partin and could set up a meeting.

He continued that Strate asked him to take the affidavit about wire tapping to Partin in a meeting set up by James H. Gill in Gill's office.

GLANCED AT AFFIDAVIT
O'Hara said he only glanced at the affidavit and had no idea it contained allegations of government wire tapping.

He said Harold Brown, a Chattanooga defense lawyer in the Hoffa trial, had talked with Strate about wire tapping in Chattanooga and the gist was that it would be beneficial to all defendants in both Hoffa federal trials in Chattanooga and Chicago if evidence of wire tapping could be produced.

O'Hara said he did not discuss the proposed affidavit, but merely presented it to Partin, who said he could not sign it as it was untrue.

He said he did not bear anybody promise Partin any compensation to sign the statement.

MEETING SHERIDAN

O'Hara also told of accompanying Strate to the Bourbon Orleans Hotel to meet National Broadcasting Co. newsman Walter Sheridan.

He said he and attorney Edward Baldwin went to the bar for an hour while Sheridan talked at a table with Strate, and the conclusion he heard Sheridan tell Strate he wanted to help Strate in Chicago.

When recalled to testify later in the hearing, O'Hara said the campaign deficit he incurred when he ran against District Attorney Jim Garrison amounted to $25,000 to

He said he had no dealings with the Teamsters relative to the deficit.

Garrison testified that O'Hara, who waged a bitter campaign against his bid for reelection, was "a very competent criminal district judge."

AWARE OF ACTIVITIES

O'Hara said he was aware of activities complained of, and conceded no criminal aspects were ever existed.

Garrison said he had no complaints from members of his staff about the judge's operation of his court.

Another witness was James H. "Buddy" Gill, managing director of the Baton Rouge Industrial Contractors Association, who said he once told Partin he would be a "big fool" if he did change his testimony from the federal court.

James Gill said he did not mention to Partin any reward for compensation for changing his testimony.

He quoted Partin as suggesting he go see Daniels and Baton Rouge District Attorney Sargent Pitcher, since they might have had some knowledge of government wire tapping.

Strate, he recalled, then asked him to talk to the two, but neither had such knowledge, James Gill said.

NO DEALINGS

James Gill said he had no financial dealings with O'Hara and that Partin once told him he had been offered $60,000 to sign an affidavit changing his testimony.

Pitcher told the commission hearing he was visited by James Gill, who told him he wanted to help Hoffa.

James Gill wanted him to call Partin and ask him to sign the affidavit, Pitcher said, but he said he told Gill he was not going to take any part in it.

Strate was an unexpected witness since he has moved to Florida and is out of the jurisdiction of the court on a civil matter.

The 48-year-old builder said he is constructing a condominium apartment building.

CONVICTED IN 1964

He said he was convicted in July, 1964, in federal court later heard Partin wanted to help and that Partin had knowledge of wire tapping in Chattanooga.

He said he has been trying for years to obtain evidence of wire tapping.

He said he had no financial dealings with O'Hara, and offered no money to Partin to sign an affidavit. He said he heard while in federal court of a $200,000 reward offered by the Teamsters Union to get Partin to sign.

Calling television newsman Sheridan the "architect of my trouble," Strate said he met with him in the Bourbon Orleans because he felt he could obtain from him admission of wire tapping either in the Chattanooga or Chicago cases.

He did not explain how Sheridan allegedly caused his troubles, but added that a September, 1967, appearance before the federal grand jury here was to harass him.

Strate said "they" are trying to protect Partin in Baton Rouge "and that's why O'Hara is here" (in the removal suit).

FEDERAL CASE

Asked about the federal case involving him and Hoffa in Chicago, Strate explained there were 11 defense lawyers sitting in court and 28 "on hire."

"Twenty-eight available. That's why we got convicted."

He said O'Hara never helped in a legal way, and he never promised O'Hara anything.

A former assistant district atorney assigned to O'Hara's court, Ross V. Scaccia, testified he advised O'Hara that Strate was "too hot for you; you are a judge. Why don't you just drift away from him?"

Scaccia said he told the judge he didn't think it was his place to help Strate.

QUIZZED BY LAWYERS

As an assistant United States attorney, Scaccia said, he was called to Washington and Chicago for questioning on his knowledge of O'Hara by criminal division lawyers from the Justice Department.

He said they did not like his attitude and his boss, Louis Lacour, suggested it might be better if he resigned.

Filed with the record of the closed session was an affidavit in which Partin said he told O'Hara and James Gill that all of them would get into trouble if he changed his testimony.

In the affidavit, Partin told of the meeting set up in James Gill's Baton Rouge office for himself, Gill and O'Hara.

He said he recognized the affidavit as being the same one Morris Shiffer, a Hoffa lawyer, brought to him. The lawyer was sentenced to 90 days for contempt of court in the Chattanooga proceedings, Partin said.

It was the same affidavit that D'Alton Smith, former Governor's Assistant Aubrey Young and Shiffer tried to get him to sign in Young's house, and wanted him to swear that Sheridan came to him every night before he got on the witness stand in Chattanooga and gave him transcripts of telephone conversations made by Hoffa so he could testify about them during the next day, Partin stated.

SPECIAL PROSECUTOR

He said Sheridan at the time worked as a special prosecutor for the Justice Department.

Partin said O'Hara told him if he signed the affidavit, there would be witnesses to back up the substance of it. He explained this would be perjury because federal marshals were with him 24 hours a day in Chattanooga.

Partin said the judge asked if it could be reworded, but he told him it would still be perjury. Partin said at the end of the meeting, James Gill made a statement within the judge's hearing that $1 million would be nothing to them, presumably referring to Hoffa and the Teamsters.

He said James Gill explained the statement by saying if Hoffa could get a new trial, they could shake down "them" by not letting Partin testify until money was produced.

Argument on the suit will be heard by the Louisiana Supreme Court on May 3.

On February 13, 1964, Raymond Comstock, New Orleans Police officer assigned to the District Attorney's office, advised that shortly after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy he was conducting an investigation to locate David W. Ferrie who was alleged to have been an associate of Lee Harvey Oswald. In connection with this investigation he attempted to locate Ferrie at his residence and in the course of his investigation at Ferrie's residence, 3330 Louisiana Avenue Parkway, he found the following material:

Two undated letters addressed to Mr. Jack Wasserman, Warner Building, Washington, D. C., Attorney signed D. W. Ferrie, bearing the return address of Room 307, Maya Excelsior, Guatemala. (It should be noted that the only difference in these letters is that one copy has handwritten corrections and notations on page 2);

An undated letter, addressed to Jack and signed Dave;

(b)(7)(c) An undated letter, addressed to [redacted] and [redacted]

First page of David W. Ferrie's bank book with the Whitney National Bank of New Orleans.

Mr. Comstock advised that this material was obtained without a warrant and the search was not conducted incidental to an arrest as Ferrie was not present at his residence and was not located until several days subsequent to his investigation at this address. Mr. Comstock advised that he made copies of above material which he made available on February 13, 1964.

CARLOS MARCELLO

David W. Ferrie is a former pilot for Eastern Airlines and according to Raymond Comstock is a notorious homosexual in the City of New Orleans. Ferrie was observed during the course of the trial of Carlos Marcello during the month of November, 1963, to be in frequent contact with defense attorneys G. Wray Gill and Jack Wasserman. Gill and Wasserman were Carlos Marcello's principal defense attorneys.

David W. Ferrie when interviewed by New Orleans FBI Agents in connection with another investigation on November 25, 1963, admitted that he has been employed by Attorney G. Wray Gill since March, 1962, and admitted working from August, 1963 to November, 1963 on the case involving Carlos Marcello who had been charged in Federal Court in connection with a fraudulent birth certificate.

Ferrie admitted visiting Guatemala on October 11, 1963, and departing Guatemala October 18, 1963, and entering Guatemala on October 30, 1963, and departing November 1, 1963. This information is confirmed by U. S. Passport number B085860 that Ferrie exhibited when being interviewed by Bureau Agents on another matter on November 25, 1963.

David W. Ferrie is identical with New Orleans Police Department number 107026. He was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on March 28, 1918, is 5'11", weighs 195 pounds. He is bald and wears a home-made wig. Ferrie's police Department record does not reflect a conviction.

REC-13

[REDACTED]

An extremely wealthy man in his late 40's, MYFORD IRVINE, died on 1/11/59 with two shotgun blasts in the belly and a .22 slug in the head. Officially, the death was ascribed to suicide, a decision which stands today on the record, despite misgivings of members of IRVINE's family, including the wife of Federal District Judge THELMORE CLARK and MYFORD's niece, Mrs. JOANNE IRVINE BURSE, et whose insistence the body was examined many months later for pathological study. The consensus of pathologists was that the IRVINE wounds could have been self-inflicted.

On this verdict, the MYFORD IRVINE estate, which includes a big share in the 91,000 acre "Irvine Ranch" dominating Orange County, California, will probably go to MYFORD's widow who was reportedly either sleeping or sitting in the family home directly above the bedroom room and later that Sunday afternoon she discovered her husband's dead body.

Tyler, Texas

February 27, 1961

TO ALL FEDERAL INVESTIGATIVE OFFICERS
FILING COMPLAINTS BEFORE U. S. COMMISSIONERS
IN THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS:

On February 26, 1961, the Bureau of Prisons, Department of Justice, inaugurated a new program for collecting statistical data and reporting prisoner status to the Bureau of Prisons. It may be that you are already familiar with this new record system, but we are enclosing a sample Form DJ-100 for your information. The United States Marshals are charged with retaining record responsibility of Federal prisoners during the pendency of their cases.

You will note from the card enclosed that the United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Texas at Tyler, Texas will need detailed information for each prisoner coming into his custody. We will have to depend upon your cooperation in order to insure the success of the program by your making an extra set of fingerprints for our use each time you bring a defendant before a U. S. Commissioner in the Eastern District of Texas where no Deputy Marshal is present. As you know, we no longer have Deputies in the field in the Texarkana, Paris, Sherman and Jefferson Divisions of the Court and our problems in obtaining all the necessary information for the cards will be greater here than in Tyler and Beaumont.

The set of fingerprints which you will send to the Marshal's headquarters in Tyler will determine the "prisoner number" under Item 6, which is essential in compiling the data and prisoner status reported to the Bureau of Prisons, and it will also serve as the local fingerprint number for identifying prints sent to the F. B. I.

We are herewith enclosing a small supply of self-addressed manila envelopes and fingerprint cards overprinted with the Marshal's identification, and we will appreciate very much your cooperation in supplying the fingerprint card when we are not able to have a Deputy at the arrest and arraignment.

62-10273-5

UNITED STATES MARSHAL
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
TYLER, TEXAS

Reurlet 3-13-61 concerning the new "Prisoner Record and Reporting System" inaugurated by the Bureau of Prisons. You enclosed a mimeographed letter dated February 27, 1961, which was addressed to all Federal Investigative Offices by James Crawford, Jr., U. S. Marshal, Eastern District of Texas. Mr. Crawford requests that an extra set of fingerprints be taken each time a defendant is brought before a U. S. Commissioner in his district where no Deputy U. S. Marshal is present; further, that these fingerprints be forwarded to his headquarters at Tyler, Texas. You asked to be advised if similar requests have been made by the U. S. Marshals in other districts and if so, whether the procedures are similar to those outlined by Mr. Crawford.

SAC, Louisville, wrote about the same problem 2-24-61. It seems there is no Deputy U. S. Marshal at either Paducah or Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and the U. S. Marshal at Louisville was concerned that Federal prisoners would be released by the U. S. Commissioner or a Federal judge prior to the U. S. Marshal taking custody.

The Bureau is of the opinion that Form DJ-100 need not be used by the Marshal unless he actually has custody of a prisoner. If this is true it would not be necessary for you to take two sets of fingerprints where no Deputy U. S. Marshal is present and forward one set to U. S. Marshal Headquarters at Tyler.

The Louisville Office was instructed to have the U. S. Marshal there refer his problem to the Executive Office for U. S. Marshals in compliance with page five of Department of Justice memo 289 dated 1-31-61. That memo was addressed to all U. S. Marshals and Bureau of Prisons Institutions concerning Prisoner Record and Reporting System. It was sent out in connection with DJ-100

The questions raised by you and Louisville have been orally discussed with Executive Office for U. S. Marshals and when a decision is reached you will be advised.

Assistant Attorney General
Office of Legislative Affairs

NOTE: This responds to a 1/6/77 Departmental memorandum from Mr. Fuller to Mr. Adams, with attachments, setting forth information developed by IRS alleging contacts by Nelson Bunker Hunt with Jack Ruby, one Eugene Braden and Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly before the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on 11/22/63. This information was furnished to Dallas Division on 1/11/77 by facsimile and a search of its indices was requested. Dallas Supervisor Gerald L. Geary, on 1/12/77, advised that a search of Dallas indices and consultation with the former Dallas Case Agent in the John F. Kennedy assassination, former SA Robert P. Gemberling, disclosed no information pertinent to this matter. A review of Bufiles has failed to corroborate this information. On 1/13/77, Dallas advised that further review of this matter in Dallas indices has revealed that one Jim Braden also known as Eugene Brading and Gene Brading was in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository immediately following the assassination of President Kennedy on 11/22/63. Information has been received disclosing that a 1971 Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) inquiry developed information alleging that Nelson Bunker Hunt had organized a "kill squad," that one Eugene Braden was connected with this activity and was in Hunt's office on November 21, 1963, and was at the assassination site on November 22, 1963, that Jack Ruby was also in Hunt's office on November 21, 1963, and that Praden's and Ruby's visits to Hunt's office could be verified by entries in a "sign out book." An IRS, December 9, 1976, memorandum included an attachment which purported to be a November 8, 1963, note written by Lee Harvey Oswald to a Mr. Hunt and it was stated that this attachment was received by IRS, Dallas on December 9, 1976, at which time IRS was informed that the original of the note was in the possession of the FBI.

Preliminary searches of FBI Headquarters and Dallas Office indices failed to disclose any indication that the FBI received the original or copy of such a note or information pertaining to the alleged presence of Jack Ruby and one Eugene Braden in the office of Nelson Bunker Hunt on November 21, 1963. Information has been located to verify that one Jim Braden, also known as Eugene Brading and Gene Brading, was in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository Building immediately following the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963.
