1Date 4/10/68

Lieutenant J. D. HAMBY, Homicide Squad, Memphis Police Department, made available a set of keys found by COY LOVE in the gutter in front of Jim's Restaurant, 418 South Main, Memphis, Tennessee. HAMBY advised he received the keys from LOYD JOWERS, the owner of Jim's Restaurant.

The keys are described as follows:

- (1) Master Lock Company key, gold in color, SN 5671.
- (2) General Motors key, silver in color, but turned gold with age, SN 8190.
- (3) Yale Key Company key, silver in color, made of aluminum, SN PDX 124.
- (4) A bottle opener shaped like a girl with Four Roses, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio, advertisement stamped on the back.

All four of these items were on a gold ring which was attached to a gold chain approximately 1 1/2" in length and a paper clip was slipped through the other end of the chain.

Memphis Police Department is holding the set of keys at the present time.
