FROM: SAC, SAN FRANCISCO (173-65)
SUBJECT: MURKIN

Re Portland airtel to San Francisco, dated 4/10/68.

On April 12, 1968, [REDACTED], aka [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a Negro prostitute, born [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] was located and interviewed by SAs FRANK UNDERWOOD III and DOUGLAS CORRIGAN at the London Lodge Motel, [REDACTED] Broadway and Seventh Streets, Oakland, California, where she has resided for two weeks, registered as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that the basis for the quotation contained in her letter of April 8, 1968, to [REDACTED] Portland, Oregon, "I knew whites was going to kill that man," referring to MARTIN LUTHER KING, was the fact that MEDGER EVERS had been previously killed by a white person and therefore, she felt, that eventually KING also would be killed by whites. She stated that she feels that eventually STOKELY CARMICHAEL, H. RAB BROWN, and [REDACTED] will also be killed by whites.

[REDACTED] emphatically denied having any knowledge as to the perpetrator of the KING murder. She stated that the basis of the aforementioned quotation was completely misinterpreted by TANNER.

[REDACTED] disclaimed membership in any organization or associations with members of any organization.
