

Memorandum

TO : SAC(44-1987)

FROM : SA MAHLON J. PRICE

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/13/68

Lt. Neville ^{Homicide} phoned at 10:10 PM this date and stated he was calling at the request of Captain Ray. The Captain had received an anonymous call stating that one Steve Gaulding or Steve Gaulden a seaman from Birmingham, who drives a light colored Mustang is staying at the Admiral Benbow, 1220 Union. This man allegedly fits the description and resembles the newspaper sketch.

The writer phoned the Admiral Benbow Inn, 1220 Union and spoke with Night Manager Mrs Emma Steele. She advised there was no one by that name staying at the inn.

For information.
