FROM SA EUGENE G. DOUGLASS

SUBJECT: MURKIN

On 4/17/68 at 1:50 p.m., R. C. HAWKS, 79 N. Bellevue, Memphis, Tenn., Apt. 7, who has no home phone, furnished the following information:

He is a retired sergeant in the U. S. Marine Corps, having served 30 years.

He had been at Nina's Lounge located at 2947 Overton Crossing Road, Memphis. There was an individual in the lounge, name not known to him, who claimed that he was in the U. S. Marine Corps and was on leave and was then enroute to Vietnam. This individual, from his general appearance and haircut, did not appear to HAWKS to be a Marine.

This individual fit the general description of the composite picture which had been shown in the Memphis newspapers regarding instant case. He did not know the man's name, but according to a waitress at the lounge, this individual apparently was a stranger in this lounge and was drinking beer and apparently was becoming intoxicated.

He furnished the following description of the unknown individual:

Race	white
Sex	male
Age	30 to 35
Height	6'
Weight	170 lbs.
Hair	black and combed
