On 4/16/68, JAMES POWELL, 3533 S. Georgetown, Montgomery, Alabama, advised SA GERALD O. GRAYBILL that the following items were found AM, 4/16/68, on the side of the Bell Road, Montgomery, approximately 1/2 mile from the intersection of Highway 80 East:

1. A map of the City of Memphis, Tennessee, which indicates that the map was distributed by the National Bank of Commerce, Memphis.
2. Holiday Inn Passport, 2/1/67 - 5/31/67, which is a directory of Holiday Inns throughout the U. S.
3. Eastern Travel Guide, a booklet listing Eastern and Western motels throughout the U. S.

He picked up these items and wanted to turn them over to the FBI as they might have some connection with captioned case.

Item #1 has a penciled circle, approximately 1 1/2" in diameter, around a residential section, approximate center of which would be intersection of Scenic and Highland Roads, which appears to be about seven miles from center of city. Several numbers with alphabetical prefixes, possibly telephone numbers are written on back of map.
